of the devastating explosion and Beth is severely injured Will gets Beth to the doctor and sets out to find those responsible Once again he is drawn back into the crosshairs of business barons clashing among themselves while competing for economic and political clout amid the silver riches of the West Will has been in this position before in earlier days but this time the big company money is out to get him and the things just got personal Will just wants those who hurt Beth brought to justice but he must find out who is responsible for setting that blast the first of many to come if he figures right With the timber business leveling the forests around Lake Tahoe and the silver mines clamoring for the necessary wood the arsonists could be working for anyone Those who don't believe in the deforestation process will go to any length to save the woodlands but those who need the jobs lumbering provides are just as determined In a race against time Will is forced to work with an old nemesis private investigator Dale Paris to try to stop the arsonists and save the sawmills from disaster Can they stop the bloodshed At any price Will is determined to have CLEAR CUT JUSTICE
