Stanford Album:

The Stanford Album Margo Baumgartner Davis, Roxanne Nilan, 1989 The Stanford Album brings together some 600 photographs largely unpublished and an interpretive text to tell the story of the community life of Stanford University from the University's creation in 1885 through the Second World War. It is a fitting coincident that at the same time Stanford is celebrating its Centennial Years 1985-91 the art of photography has reached its own anniversary of 150 years since the birth of the daguerreotype. The founders of the university Jane and Leland Stanford sat for their wedding portraits in 1850 and these daguerreotypes were just the beginning of the Stanfords' fascination with patronage of the new art form. Leland Stanford's perception of the value of the camera as a medium of documentation resulted in a superb pictorial record of the planning, construction and dedication of the university some of which is reproduced in The Stanford Album. By the turn of the century technical advances in photography made possible the small handheld camera and at Stanford the snapshot image of campus life began to proliferate. Commercial photographers mainly concentrated on athletic events, drama productions, student parades and other campus rituals. Students who owned cameras intruded everywhere with the mysterious little boxes into dormitories, fraternities and sororities, classrooms, dances, picnics and beer busts. The book revisits a bygone Stanford. Through the magic of the camera lens a vanished world of college life comes alive again and we can see the community that existed yesterday under the same arcades where those at Stanford today study, work and stroll.

Carol S. Prentice, 2006-01-01 The twenty field trip guides in this volume represent the work of earthquake professionals from the earth science, engineering and emergency management communities. The guides were developed to cross the boundaries between these professions and thus reflect this diversity. The trips focus on the built environment, the effects of the 1906 earthquake, the San Andreas fault and other active faults in northern California.

Nicholas Maw, 2013 The first large scale study of the music of Herbert Howells, a prodigiously gifted musician and favourite student of the notoriously hard to please Sir Charles Villiers Stanford. Herbert Howells (1892-1983) was a prodigiously gifted musician and the favourite student of the notoriously hard to please Sir Charles Villiers Stanford. Throughout his long life he was one of the country's most prominent composers writing extensively in all genres except the symphony and opera. Yet today he is known mostly for his church music and there is as yet relatively little serious study of his work. This book is the first large scale study of Howells's music, affording both detailed consideration of individual works and a broad survey of general characteristics and issues. Its coverage is wide ranging, addressing all aspects of the composer's prolific output and probing many of the issues that it raises. The essays are gathered in five sections. Howells the Stylist examines one of the most striking aspects of the composer's music: its strongly characterised personal voice. Howells the Vocal Composer addresses both his well known contribution to church music and his less familiar but also important contribution to the genre of solo song Howells the Instrumental Composer shows that he was no less accomplished for his work in genres without words for which in fact he first made his name Howells the Modern considers the composer s rather overlooked contribution to the development of a modern voice for British music and Howells in Mourning explores the important impact of his son s death on his life and work The composer that emerges from these studies is a complex figure technically fluent but prone to revision and self doubt innovative but also conservative a composer with an improvisational sense of flow who had a firm grasp of musical form an exponent of British musical style who owed as much to continental influence as to his national heritage This volume comprising a collection of outstanding essays by established writers and emergent scholars opens up the range of Howells s achievement to a wider audience both professional and amateur PHILLIP COOKE is Lecturer in Composition at the University of Aberdeen DAVID MAW is Tutor and Research Fellow in Music at Oriel College Oxford holding Lectureships also at Christ Church The Queen s and Trinity Colleges CONTRIBUTORS Byron Adams Paul Andrews Graham Barber Jonathan Clinch Phillip A Cooke Jeremy Dibble Lewis Foreman Fabian Huss David Maw Diane Nolan Cooke Lionel Pike Paul Spicer Jonathan White Foreword by John Rutter The Monthly Musical Record ,1900 Includes music
