Screening China Yingjin Zhang, 2002 Yingjin Zhang guides the reader through the development of Chinese film criticism pointing out that Western critics have studied a comparatively small number of films from a much larger body of work often with a unidirectional Eurocentric bias The result has been that the few have influenced the many perpetuating a cycle of production of films from China that bow to the Western notion of Chineseness As a corrective the author introduces readers to a much larger canon of film and proposes a multidirectional model of film studies one that allows for a Western reading of Chinese film yet also recognizes Chinese cinema's own voice Yingjin Zhang is Professor of Chinese Literature and Film Comparative Literature and Cultural Studies at University of California San Diego
