Spectacular Vernaculars:

Spectacular Vernaculars Russell A. Potter, 1995-08-31 Spectacular Vernaculars examines hip hop's cultural rebellion in terms of its specific implications for postmodern theory and practice using the politics of reception as its primary rhetorical ground. Hip hop culture in general and rap music in particular present model sites for such an inquiry since they enact both postmodern modes of production: the appropriation of tropes, technologies and material culture and a potential means of resistance to the commodification of cultural forms under late capitalism. By paying specific attention to the historical and cultural context of hip hop as a black artform and locating its practice of resistance in terms of a postmodernist reading of consumer culture, this book offers a complex reading of hip hop as a postmodern practice with implications both for theories of postmodernism and cultural studies as a whole.

Emerging Afrikan Survivals Kemayo Kamau, 2004-08-02 This work sets forth the guidelines for an Afrocentric literary theory and goes on to apply that theory to three novels: Invisible Man, Song of Solomon and The Chaneysville Incident.

The Africanist Aesthetic in Global Hip-Hop H. Osumare, 2016-09-23 Asserting that hip hop culture has become another locus of postmodernity, Osumare explores the intricacies of this phenomenon from the beginning of the Twenty First century, tracing the aesthetic and socio-political path of the currency of hip hop across the globe.

The Hiplife in Ghana H. Osumare, 2012-09-06 The Hiplife in Ghana explores one international site: Ghana, West Africa, where hip hop music and culture have morphed over two decades into the hiplife genre of world music. It investigates hiplife music not merely as an imitation and adaptation of hip hop but as a reinvention of Ghana's century-old highlife popular music tradition. Author Halifu Osumare traces the process by which local hiplife artists have evolved a five-phased indigenization process that has facilitated a youth-driven transformation of Ghanaian society. She also reveals how Ghana's social shifts facilitated by hiplife have occurred within the country's corporate recolonization, serving as another example of the neoliberal free market agenda as a new form of colonialism. Hiplife artists we discover are complicit with these global socio-economic forces even as they create counter-narratives that push aesthetic limits and challenge the neoliberal order.

Gordon Stretton, Black British Transoceanic Jazz Pioneer Michael Brocken, Jeff Daniels, 2018-09-15 This extensively researched text concerning the life and career of Liverpool-born Black jazz musician Gordon Stretton not only contributes to the important debate concerning the transoceanic pathways of jazz during the 20th century but also suggests to the jazz fan and scholar alike that such pathways reaching as they also did across the Atlantic from Europe are actually part of a largely ignored, therefore partially hidden, history of 20th century jazz performance industry and influence. The work also exists to contribute to a more complete picture of the significance of diaspora studies across the spectrum of popular music performance and to award to those Liverpool musicians who were not contributors to the city's musical visage post-rock n' roll a place in popular music history. Gordon Stretton was a jazz pioneer in several senses: he emerged from a poverty-stricken, racially marginalized upbringing in Liverpool to develop a popular music career emblematic of Black diasporan experience He was a child dancer and singer in the Lancashire Lads the troupe which was also part of a young Charlie Chaplin s development a well respected solo touring artist in the UK as The Natural Artistic Coon a chorister and musical director with the Jamaican Choral Union and having encountered syncopated music a jazz percussionist multi instrumentalist and vocalist not to mention a ground breaking bandleader All of these musical experiences took place through time on his own terms as he learnt his craft on the hoof via many different encounters with musical genres from Liverpool to London Paris Brussels Rio and Buenos Aires Gordon Stretton was truly a transoceanic jazz pioneer The Cambridge Companion to Hip-Hop Justin A.  Richard Wilson was born in London in 1953 Descended on one side from a line of builders and on the other of artists his work often comes closer to engineering or even architecture than it does to traditional sculpture Typically he transforms the viewer s environment into something unsettling and strange by the interventions he makes whether in the internal space of a gallery the structure of a building or in one of the ships with which he has a particular affinity Perhaps his best known work is 20 50 currently on show at and probably the most popular exhibit in the Saatchi Gallery in London For 20 50 Wilson flooded a gallery space with oil which has a highly reflective surface Into the oil is built a kind of narrow pier or promenade down which one person at a time can walk the oil perilously close to their body So reflective is the oil that the room induces a strong sense of disorientation Further along the River Thames next to the Millennium Dome is another Wilson piece that provides an unexpected sight moving freely through it is both a startling sculptural object in its own right and a comment on the vanished shipping industry that was once a mainstay of the river community In Los Angeles Wilson was inspired by one of the most ubiquitous symbols of Californian life the swimming pool suspending a fibreglass pool shell from a sixty foot long pipe in MOCA s subterranean gallery Deep End In addition to and often in conjunction with these large scale projects Wilson makes films and sculpture takes photographs and stages performance events and has been a formative influence on a generation of British artists This lavishly illustrated career survey includes a new interview with Wilson and examines six key works in depth      Fictions of Globalization James Annesley,2006-04-24 The globalization debate has become a dominant question in many disciplines but has only tended to be covered within literary studies in the context of postcolonial literature This book focuses on reading contemporary novels in relation to globalization      The Edinburgh Companion to Contemporary Scottish Literature Berthold Schoene-Harwood,2007 This title examines the ways in which the cultural and political role of Scottish writing has changed since the country s successful referendum on national self rule in 1997      Aslib Proceedings ,2007
