The Spectre of Comparisons ,2000      The Spectre of Comparisons Benedict Richard O'Gorman Anderson, 1998 A controversial collection from the author of the celebrated Imagined Communities While Benedict Anderson is best known for his classic book on nationalism Imagined Communities many of his most telling and incisive interventions have been made in his essays Those collected in this new book span a range of subjects from Aquino s Philippines where the horses on the haciendas ate better than the stable hands to political assassination in contemporary Thailand where government posts have become so lucrative that to gain them candidates will kill their rivals In these writing the subtle imbrication of politics national imaginings bureaucracy modernization and its agents particularly print culture is brought out in all its complexity and richness The spectre of comparisons was a phrase used by the celebrated Filipino nationalist and novelist Jose Rizal 1861 96 whose work and fate in the national imagination are discussed in these pages In his finely wrought observations on Southeast Asian societies Anderson raises deep questions concerning this spectre about how for instance Manila is changed when it can no longer be seen through a comparison with European capitals and how more broadly nationalism is produce by the process of increasing global connection The Spectre of Comparisons is an indispensable resource for those interested in South East Asia But it also contains important theoretical and historical considerations about nationalism national literature and memory modernization and the prospects for the Left in what Anderson dubs The New World Disorder      Grounds of Comparison Pheng Cheah, Jonathan D. context of the imperial connections between British colonies It argues that Indo Irish analogies and comparisons became especially important in representing imperial integrity in the late nineteenth century and as such became the very site where the image of the British Empire was contested book jacket Far Eastern Economic Review ,1999-04 Asia s premier business magazine The magazine reports on politics business economics technology and social and cultural issues throughout Asia with a particular emphasis on both Southeast Asia and China The Promise and Pathology of Democracy Cleo Calimbahin,2009 MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures Modern Language Association of America,2003 Vols for 1969 include ACTFL annual bibliography of books and articles on pedagogy in foreign languages 1969 Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index Current Contents Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia),2000 History on Its Side Joanie Lorraine McCollom,2010 Contested Democracy and the Left in the Philippines After Marcos Nathan Gilbert Quimpo,2008 When people power toppled Marcos the Philippines was considered a shining example of the restoration of democracy but since 1986 it has encountered obstacles to the deepening of that democracy Quimpo puts forth the idea of contested democracy and argues that deepening democracy involves transforming an elite dominated formal democracy into a participatory and egalitarian one Publisher s website Fire on the Rim William H.
