State Identity And Violence:

The State, Identity and Violence R. Brian Ferguson, 2003-09-02 In this book a collection of experts investigate the varied forces from global systems to local beliefs that lead to civil violence chaos and perhaps a new political order The State Identity and Violence explores acts of mass violence occurring within national borders and examines the links such acts have to personal identities and how they challenge the character or very existence of the state Building upon the anthropological premises of holism and cross cultural comparison this volume shows how violent challenges to existing states should be conceptualized as layered problems with multiple kinds of causes It not only goes beyond the ancient hatreds explanation but shows the inadequacy of the concept of ethnic violence and of theories which treat interests and identities as separate sometimes opposed variables

State, Identity & Violence Navnita Chadha Behera, 2000 This Book Provides The Most Complete Account Of The Diverse Group Identities In Jammu Their Politicization And Demands Ranging From Affirmative Discrimination More Autonomy And A Separate Constitutional Status To Outright Secession It Presents The First Detailed And Critical Appraisal Of The State And Regional Autonomy Committee Reports Released In April 1999 And Adopted Partly By The J K State Assembly In June 2000

The State, Identity and Violence R. Brian Ferguson, 2003 Explores acts of mass violence occurring within national borders and examines the links such acts have to personal identities and how they challenge the character or very existence of the state

Identity, Violence and Power Guy Elchereth, Stephen Reicher, 2017-02-23 This book provides a systematic examination of the re patterning of collective identities through violence and the role of power politics in such critical transitions The authors show how identity is created through shared social practices and how it is transformed when collective violence disrupts common practices Three case studies show how this model sheds new light on the dynamics of religious violence in parts of India on ethnic violence in the former Yugoslavia as well as on anti war protest in the UK in reaction to the military invasion of Iraq The book explores an alternative way of looking at conflict and dissects the policies and processes that bring specific identities to the fore taking seriously the capacity to resist and face abusive authority Identity Violence and Power will be of interest to students and scholars of sociology social psychology history political science and conflict studies

The Contemporary Novel and the City S. Khanna, 2015-12-04 This book examines the deeply divided terrain of the twentieth century city and its formative impact on narrative fiction It focuses on two major world authors at the two ends of the twentieth century who write systematically about the colonial and postcolonial cities they were born in James Joyce and Dublin and Salman Rushdie and Bombay

Seminar, 2000 Nationalism and Internationalism in the Post-Cold War Era Kjell Goldmann, Ulf Hannerz, Charles Westin, 2012-12-06 The tension between nationalism and internationalism has been a major feature of world politics since the end of the Cold War Based on a Nobel symposium this collection brings together an international selection of acclaimed authors from a wide variety of academic disciplines The book combines focused case studies and more theoretically based material to examine critically the post Cold War political landscape Subjects covered include changing interpretation of the nation state and nationalism the growing prominence of transnational organisations technological changes in information communication and transport multiculturalism and citizenship ethnicity and religious identity in African Indian Bosnian and Polish nationalism the growing global significance of Islam

Alternative and bottom-up peace indicators Roger Mac Ginty, 2016-04-14 There is widespread dissatisfaction with the current suite of evaluation and monitoring tools available to peacebuilders and those responding to conflict Yet despite this dissatisfaction there are few concrete moves to investigate alternative methods of gauging the success or failure of peace initiatives This volume explores alternative methods of assessing peace These methods tend to be bottom up and people centric and are interested in many aspects of conflict societies that orthodox top down indicators often miss The methods explored in this work chime with the contemporary interest in critical approaches to peace and conflict studies and approaches that are interested in local perspectives The volume also connects with a growing interest in civic epistemology or the co production of data whereby research subjects participate in the research and have a chance of understanding the relevance of research All of the contributors to the volume have significant field experience in conflict affected areas and their work is informed by an engagement with the everyday challenges and opportunities facing people in war zones This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Intervention and Statebuilding

Theoretical Perspectives, 1999 Minority Rights and Conflict Prevention: Case Study of Conflicts in Indian Jammu and Kashmir, Punjab and Nagaland Maya Chadda, 2006-08-19 This study explores India's policies and practice towards minorities and three violent ethnic conflicts the Sikh struggle for an independent state in the Punjab region the Kashmiri Muslim demand for the separation of the states of Jammu and Kashmir from India and the Naga claims to an independent state of Nagaland in the north east
