

A photograph of a narrow, historic stone alleyway in Jerusalem. The walls are made of rough-hewn, reddish-brown stone. On the left, there's a small arched window with a metal grate. Further down the alley, there are several arched doorways. A wooden balcony with a dark railing is visible on the upper left. The ground is paved with light-colored stones. In the foreground, there are some potted plants, including a large terracotta pot with a small tree and a blue pot with a fern.
