State Society And The Environment In South Asia:

State, Society and the Environment in South Asia Stig Toft Madsen, 2013-12-16 Contemporary thinking favours local participation and local stake holding under a decentralized democratic framework as the just and efficient solution to contemporary South Asian environmental dilemmas and crises In a series of case studies and more extensive audits a group of mainly Nordic and American authors seek to substantiate qualify or criticize this formula Covering both urban and rural environments the hills and the plains the book provides insights into the actual management and mismanagement of resources in India and Pakistan Contents Income Distribution and Environmental Degradation The State and Local Management in Colonial Irrigation Oral Histories of Environmental Change in Rajasthan The Van Gujjars and the Rajaji National Park Implementing International Regimes in India Forest Contractors as Intermediaries in Pakistan s Forestry Tragedy of Collective Action among farmers in South India International production of Pesticides Voluntary Organisations in Environmental Service Provision The Use of Metaphor in Himalayan Resource Management State, Society and the Environment in South Asia Stig Toft Madsen, 2013-12-16 Contemporary thinking favours local participation and local stake holding under a decentralized democratic framework as the just and efficient solution to contemporary South Asian environmental dilemmas and crises In a series of case studies and more extensive audits a group of mainly Nordic and American authors seek to substantiate qualify or criticize this formula Covering both urban and rural environments the hills and the plains the book provides insights into the actual management and mismanagement of resources in India and Pakistan Contents Income Distribution and Environmental Degradation The State and Local Management in Colonial Irrigation Oral Histories of Environmental Change in Rajasthan The Van Gujjars and the Rajaji National Park Implementing International Regimes in India Forest Contractors as Intermediaries in Pakistan s Forestry Tragedy of Collective Action among farmers in South India International production of Pesticides Voluntary Organisations in Environmental Service Provision The Use of Metaphor in Himalayan Resource Management Environmental Politics and Governance in Southeast Asia Syed Mohammed Ad'ha Aljunied, 2025-10-02 In this book Aljunied analyses how ASEAN and its key maritime member states of Singapore Malaysia and Indonesia govern environmental issues through strategic engagements with social forces In the new millennium ASEAN states power is enhanced and solidified through regulatory statehood strategic renewal and moral ideology in order to subdue civil resistance while managing non traditional security threats Through a comparative analysis of Southeast Asia this book highlights how state capitalist society relations are shaped by politics of scale and social conflict in order to reinforce authoritarianism and intensify capitalism development agendas at the expense of environmental preservation With this the book explores how civil society challenge and are suppressed by state power at national and regional platforms A pioneering scholarly work this book represents a major contribution to the intersection between political science environmental governance and Southeast Asian Studies by offering rich theoretical and empirical insights into the dynamics of state capitalist society relations in an era of global environmental crisis Routledge Handbook of the Environment in Southeast Asia Philip Hirsch, 2016-09-13 The environment is one of the defining issues of our times and it is closely linked to questions and dilemmas surrounding economic development Southeast Asia is one of the world's most economically and demographically dynamic regions and it is also one in which a host of environmental issues raise themselves The Routledge Handbook of the Environment in Southeast Asia is a collection of 30 chapters dealing with the most significant scholarly debates in this rapidly growing field of study Structured in four main parts it gives a comprehensive regional overview of and insight into the environment in Southeast Asia Wide ranging and balanced this handbook promotes scholarly understanding of how environmental issues are dealt with from diverse theoretical perspectives It offers a detailed empirical understanding of the myriad environmental problems and challenges faced in Southeast Asia This is the first publication of its kind in this field a helpful companion for a global audience and for scholars of Southeast Asian studies from a variety of disciplines South Asia 2007 Europa Publications, 2006-11-16 A unique source of social and economic information on this increasingly important region State, Society, and Human Rights in South Asia Stig Toft Madsen, 1996 PART 1 HUMAN RIGHTS AND SOUTH ASIA Militarising State, Society and Culture in Asia Jayadeva Uyangoda, 2005 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1991 State-society Relations and Electricity Infrastructure Cynthia Caron, 2003 State, Society, and Democracy Christiaan Keulder, 2000 In this book the Authors took stock of Namibia's progress towards a consolidated democracy In doing so they looked at the influence of two forces on democracy the Namibian State and Namibian Society Indian Defence Review, 2000 Social and Political Change in Uttar Pradesh Roger Jeffery, Jens Lerche, 2003 The state of Uttar Pradesh India's most populous but also one of its poorest is in crisis lagging behind the rest of the country in terms of social development economic growth and women's empowerment with inefficient and ineffective democratic institutions In this timely book established scholars and new voices from Europe reflect on aspects of the perilous condition of UP addressing a range of issues all drawing on intensive and extended fieldwork What used to be UP's strength has turned into its weakness Its position in India as the quintessential Indian state is unique but no specific UP identity has been developed In papers discussing people's own perceptions of core social and political issues local ideas of what is needed for development are discussed Gender relations are a central concern of two papers one on customary marriage and divorce practices at village level and the other on changing notions of education for girls and the images of the UP plains held by those in the hills Other papers deal with the social bases and ideology of the separatist movement in the UP hills with Dalits and farmers and the political organisations aiming to represent their interests with farmers and how far the BKU is articulating their demands in western UP and with how Jats in western UP are changing the way they maintain their dominance The two final papers discuss how modern mass media TV and newspapers are shaping developments in UP The book a major advance in our understanding of contemporary patterns of social change in UP will be essential reading for concerned citizens students and academics alike
