Future States Stephen Paul Haigh,2016-04-15 Globalization consists of an interlocking array of political economic social and cultural forces that challenge the traditional international order in two key ways First states historically had hard shells by means of which they were capable of consolidating differences between inside and outside to the point where the latter could more easily be quarantined Second for closely related reasons they were largely able to absorb domestic society such that the individual was less a citizen than a subject But through globalizing processes these dubious attributes have been starkly exposed which leads Haigh to ask Whither the state under globalization Insightful and well written this book is sure to spark lively debate while attempting to answer its central question

Noble conceptions of politics in eighteenth-century Sweden \(ca 1740-1790\) Charlotta Wolff,2009-01-16 Noble conceptions of politics in eighteenth century Sweden ca 1740 1790 is a study of how the Swedish nobility articulated its political ideals self images and loyalties during the Age of Liberty and under the rule of Gustav III This book takes a close look at the aristocracy s understanding of a free constitution and at the nobility s complex relationship with the monarchy Central themes are the old notion of mixed government classical republican conceptions of liberty and patriotism as well as noble thoughts on the rights and duties of the citizen including the right to rebellion against an unrighteous ruler The study is a conceptual analysis of public and private political statements made by members of the nobility such as Diet speeches and personal correspondence The book contributes to the large body of research on estate based identities and the transformation of political language in the second half of the eighteenth century by connecting Swedish political ideals and concepts to their European context

Men and States Chiara Bottici,2009-03-31 Can we rule states through the same means that have been used to rule individuals Men and States tackles this issue by analyzing the presuppositions of the domestic analogy and provides the tools to assess its validity in different contexts and theories Citizenship in Historical Perspective Steven G.

Ellis,Guðmundur Hálfdanarson,Ann Katherine Isaacs,2006 The volume looks at the past and the present of European citizenship and by implication its future The aim of the investigation is theoretical and practical It is based on the conviction that knowledge is essential for decision making political or otherwise and that more knowledge is needed to make decisions about European citizenship Attitudes towards such vital political and ethical issues as citizenship are commonly based on general impressions and opinions rather than on a critically founded understanding As historians and specialists in other social and human sciences we believe it is our duty to contribute to the common patrimony of understanding and insight so that informed citizens can make informed decisions One part of the book is called Work gender and society it contains the articles from Waaldijk Laikos and Hageman Republicanism and the Origins of French Liberalism, 1794-1804

Andrew J. S. Janchill,2004 Cumulative Bibliography of Victorian Studies ,2000 The Enlightenment Ryan Patrick Hanley,Darrin M. McMahon,2010 More than any earlier period of European intellectual history the age of Enlightenment infused the republic of letters with social and political significance this long awaited new collection from Routledge brings together in five volumes the very best scholarship on the period and its legacy It also incorporates historical and critical essays addressed to the Enlightenment s alleged responsibility for institutions or policies prevalent in the twentieth century including economic globalization and the Holocaust Jahrbuch des Simon-Dubnow-Instituts ,2006 Program of the ...

EUI Review ,2001 Reflections on Europe Hans-Åke Persson,Bo Stråth,2007 When Dutch and subsequently French voters rejected the Draft Treaty for a Constitutin for Europe in Spring 2005 many voices called for a pause for reflection This book is in part a result of that moment of reflection We wanted to contribute to the debate about Europe but crucially we sought to do so by taking a step back from the problem formation and agenda setting of Brussels For the authors of this volume one key to establishing critical distance has been the reappraisal of the historical perspective Another has been the problematisation of Europe as a space as opposed to looking for a definition of borders The authors also seek critical distance through a focus on the tension between Europe as a culture as a polity and as an economy These tensions ahve often been neglected or even ignored and the relationships have been seen as more or less synonymous and harmonious The aim of this volume then is two fold It wants developing a critical distance to the present Euroope to contribute to the vivid academic research and debate on Europe which too often either develops distance without commenting on the present state of affairs or comments on the present without critical distance Shades of Difference John Christopher Corbally,2009
