The third volume includes a final group of preeminent identified artists from the period of transition at the end of the 15th and the beginning of the 16th century. Artistic production at this time was still rooted in late medieval thought yet more and more seized with new renaissance developments and at a permanent state of ferment with constantly changing needs of society. The catalogue deals with correspondingly complex issues of interpretation through the works of Hieronymus Bosch, Albrecht Bouts, Gerard David, Colijn de Coter and Goossen van der Weyden. It comprises a technical, stylistic and iconographical investigation of seventeen paintings on the basis of a scientific research method which has been fully established over the years. The authors have been able to adjust various attributions and interpretations. At the same time most valuable discoveries have been made with regard to the provenance of some work belonging to the Albrecht Bouts and Colijn de Coter Groups.

The lucidity of Flaubert's prose is complemented by vivid imagery and vibrant symbolism, inviting readers to reflect on the nature of desire and the labyrinthine paths of belief. Produced during the height of the literary movement known as Realism, this work simultaneously engages with Romantic ideals, exploring the delicate balance between passion and asceticism. Gustave Flaubert, a seminal figure in 19th-century literature, was driven by a fervent desire to capture the complexities of human emotions and societal norms. His lifelong pursuit of artistic perfection and deep philosophical inquiries find a compelling expression in this work.
