Speak Palestine Speak Again:

Speak, Bird, Speak Again Ibrahim Muhawi, Sharif Kanaana, 1989-02-13 A collection of Palestinian Arab folktales which reflect the culture and highlights the role of women in the society Palestine Speaks Mateo Hoke, Cate Malek, 2021-10-05

The occupation of the West Bank and Gaza has been one of the world's most widely reported yet least understood human rights crises for over four decades In this oral history collection men and women from Palestine including a fisherman a settlement administrator and a marathon runner describe in their own words how their lives have been shaped by the historic crisis Other narrators include ABEER a young journalist from Gaza City who launched her career by covering bombing raids on the Gaza Strip IBTISAM the director of a multi faith children's center in the West Bank whose dream of starting a similar center in Gaza has so far been hindered by border closures GHASSAN an Arab Christian physics professor and activist from Bethlehem who co founded the International Solidarity Movement For more than six decades Israel and Palestine have been the global focal point of intractable conflict one that has led to one of the world's most widely reported yet least understood human rights crises In their own words men and women from West Bank and Gaza describe how their lives have been shaped by the conflict Here are stories that humanize the oft ignored violations of human rights that occur daily in the occupied Palestinian territories Speak, Bird, Speak Again Ibrahim Muhawi, 1989 A collection of Palestinian Arab folktales which reflect the culture and highlights the role of women in the society The Folktales of Palestine Farah Aboubakr, 2019-03-21 Folktales are instrumental in ensuring the survival of oral traditions and strengthening communal bonds Both the stories and the process of storytelling itself help to define social cultural and political identity For Palestinians the threat of losing their heritage has engendered a sense of urgency among storytellers and Palestinian folklorists Yet there has been remarkably little academic scholarship dedicated to the tradition Farah Aboubakr here analyses a selection of folktales edited compiled and translated by Ibrahim Muhawi and Sharif Kanaana in Speak Bird Speak Again 1989 In addition to the folktales themselves Muhawi and Kanaana's collection is renowned for providing readers with extensive folkloric historical and anthropological annotations Here for the first time the folktales and the compilers work on them are the subject of scholarly analysis Synthesising various disciplines including memory studies gender studies and social movement studies Aboubakr uses the collection to understand the politics of storytelling and its impact on Palestinian identity In particular the book draws attention to the female storytellers who play an essential role in transmitting and preserving collective memory and culture The book is an important step towards analysing a significant genre of Palestinian literature and will be relevant to scholars of Palestinian politics and popular culture gender studies and memory studies and those interested in folklore and oral literature Palestine Speaks Antonia Fredrich Futterer, 1931 Talking Back to the New York Times Kalman Seigel, 1972 A collection of letters to the editors of the New York times The Voice of Jerusalem Israel Zangwill, 1921 True Latter-Day Saints' Herald , 1884 The family magazine of the Reorganized Church of
