Speaking Frankly:

Speaking Frankly Clyde Riley with Doron Levin, 2014 In Frankly Speaking Clyde Riley tells the story of how he left the rural South as a young man with little formal education beyond high school relying on his energy intelligence and personality to rise to the top of a major company in the U S food industry Along the way he met global political leaders earned the trust of wealthy entrepreneurs and devised marketing strategies in collaboration with personalities from advertising business and finance Having started with few possessions or advantages Riley has shown with his life story how much can be accomplished in American society with ordinary determination and grit Letters of Frank Sargeson Sarah

Shieff, 2012-02-03 A rich and riveting record of both literary and social value Frank Sargeson is one of New Zealand's best loved and most important writers Besides the ground breaking short stories he wrote memoirs novels and plays He encouraged at least three generations of younger writers and for most of his adult life the famous bach behind the hedge at 14 Esmonde Road was at the heart of New Zealand's artistic and literary world Sargeson was also a prolific letter writer and this selection of 500 of the most fascinating ranges over half a century from 1927 to 1981 The letters are immensely readable vividly capturing his life and times his milieu and his personality Frank loved gossip could be bitchy and peevish but also kind affectionate funny ribald astute This collection selected edited and annotated by Sarah Shieff is a document of extraordinary significance for all those interested in New Zealand's literary and social history Our Finest Hour Gregory A.

Fossedal, 2021-11-19 William L Clayton was the principal architect of American post war foreign economic policy Newsweek yet his seminal contributions to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade GATT the Marshall Plan and the Truman Doctrine have been largely ignored over the past four decades This gap in the story of free world cooperation is filled by Gregory Fossedal's vivid biography ICLLE 2019 Syahrul R ,Zulfadhli,Muhammad Adek,Kundharu Saddhono, 2019-07-19 As an annual event International Conference on Language Literature and Education in Digital Era ICLLE 2019 continued the agenda to bring together researcher academics experts and professionals in examining selected theme by language literature and education in digital era In 2019 this event held in 19 20 July 2019 at Padang Indonesia The conference from any kind of stakeholders related with Language and literature especially in education Each contributed paper was refereed before being accepted for publication The double blind peer reviewed was used in the paper selection Cold War in the Balkans Michael M. Boll, 2014-07-15 As World War II drew to a close the United States and the Soviet Union began to maneuver for position in postwar Europe in the first exploratory moves of what would soon become a worldwide contest for power and prestige In Bulgaria Michael Boll finds a unique vantage point for study of the processes of international politics during these years of the emergence of the Cold War Bulgaria he writes was to assume a significance for both the United States and the Soviet Union greater than that small nation's intrinsic importance to either Great Power Bulgaria had joined the Axis under pressure during the war though it alone among the Axis satellites had refused to declare war on the Soviet Union Willing in 1943 to lend support to an American plan devised to bring about Bulgaria's surrender and its participation in the war against Germany. The Soviet by the fall of 1944 was to invade Bulgaria and form an alliance with the Bulgarian Communists who offered dependable support in the Red Army's continuing war effort. When military objectives were replaced by the Soviet's political drive for consolidation of its newly won empire, the Bulgarian Communists remained indispensable allies and continued the determined campaign that culminated in 1947 in declaration of the People's Republic of Bulgaria. Boll refutes the frequent charge of American nonpolicy toward Eastern Europe in this period, concluding that the loss of Bulgaria was the result not of the lack of determined policy but of a realistic assessment of American capabilities and strategic priorities. Cold War in the Balkans drawing on important new Eastern European sources and newly declassified British and American archives relates international diplomatic history to local political developments in a way that gives new depth to the study of Cold War origins.

Present at the Creation Dean Acheson, 2022-09-13 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize. With deft portraits of many world figures, Dean Acheson analyzes the processes of policy making, the necessity for decision, and the role of power and initiative in matters of state. Acheson 1893-1971 was not only present at the creation of the postwar world; he was one of its chief architects. He joined the Department of State in 1941 as Assistant Secretary of State for Economic Affairs and with brief intermissions was continuously involved until 1953 when he left office as Secretary of State at the end of the Truman years. Throughout that time, Acheson's was one of the most influential minds and strongest wills at work. It was a period that included World War II, the reconstruction of Europe, the Korean War, the development of nuclear power, the formation of the United Nations, and NATO. It involved him at close quarters with a cast that starred Truman, Roosevelt, Churchill, de Gaulle, Marshall, MacArthur, Eisenhower, Attlee, Eden, Bevin, Schuman, Dulles, de Gasperi, Adenauer, Yoshida, Vishinsky, and Molotov.

Europe in Law and Literature Laura Anina Zander, Nicola Kramp-Seidel, 2023-05-08 Europe is a broad and multifaceted construct variously understood as a geographical, political, legal, institutional, social, or cultural formation. It is characterized by numerous conflicts and processes of negotiation that have accompanied or sustained the development of normative orders and divergent conceptions of law, both in relation to individual states and to Europe as a whole. The same applies to the field of literature: language and aesthetics, numerous myths and ideologies have shaped today's understanding of Europe and still support it today. This volume examines how such processes were legally structured and literarily addressed, criticized, and complemented. Its interdisciplinary perspective and open and dynamic, both dialogical and dialectical format intends to replicate the fragmented, sometimes conflicting but always productive mosaic of voices, ideas, and concepts that have constituted and still constitute Europe, whether in the past, present, or future. Instead of resolving any of the complexities and contradictions that frame discussions on law, literature, and Europe, it aims to induce further engagement and confrontations with new and alternative visions of Europe.
