Specters Of Liberation:

Specters of Liberation Martin Beck Matušík, Martin Joseph Matustik, Martin Joseph Matušík, 1998-01-01 Advocates a new existential and political coalition among critical and postmodern social theorists and among critical gender race and class theorists in dissent from the New World Order to raise specters of liberation and empower radical democratic change

Specters of Liberation, Children of Violence Natasha Marie Llorens, 2021 I read extensively with Karima Lazali on the clinical situation of Algerians post war I draw on archival materials from Algeria and France including production notes and documentation of contemporary reception especially by Algerians On contextual questions I read Algerian sociologists politicians filmmakers and film critics as much as possible My commitment to de centering especially a French perspective on Algeria allows the rich semiotic exchange between filmmakers artists architects and political activists to emerge and to challenge the hegemonic perspective that Algerian culture post war was entirely dominated by its authoritarian government

Architecture or Revolution Nadir Lahiji, 2020-09-22 By linking building theory to the emancipatory project of critique advanced by radical thinkers in our time this work investigates the key conceptual and historical elements that culminate in an emancipatory theory of building entitled Toward a philosophy of shelter Taking Marx as its only resource this work proceeds with the conviction that our era is contemporaneous to Marx's historical era This means not judging the validity of Marx from the perspective of the historical situation but rather demonstrating the validity of a Marxian perspective for a singular historical situation as ours This work will therefore translate this perspective into seeing the situation of architecture through the eyes of Marx All those concerned with the predicament in our current condition in which architecture must play a major social role in upholding the universal value of what Alain Badiou calls generic humanity will take an interest in this work In particular architects critics scholars and students inside the field of architecture who would be seeking the application of this universal value to a new theory of building will be a welcoming audience for this work

Group Rights David Ingram, 2000 Ingram philosophy Loyola University brings a variety of current social dilemmas together in a mutually illuminating way He examines the concept of legal equality in a multiracial society by considering issues such as self governance for Native Americans the rights of immigrants affirmative action and racial redistricting He also tackles the problem of social injustice in a global setting by assessing the negative impact of free trade policies on the rights of groups to self determination and cultural integrity

Jürgen Habermas Martin Beck Matušík, Martin Joseph Matušík, 2001 This philosophical political profile offers the first of its kind intellectual reconstruction of Habermas's defining existential and historical situations his generational profile and interventions his impact on as well as the discontents that his life work generates in others Written as a lively dramatic engagement with major themes of Habermas's adult life in postwar Germany the entire study occupies a unique place between the standard genres of a biography and a theoretical commentary on the oeuvre In this work the reader is taken on a journey with Habermas through the 20th century intellectual and political history from the defeat of Nazism to the Cold War restoration of the 50s the student movement of the 60s the historical revisions of the 70s and 80s the hope of the post Wall era after 1989 all the way to the controversies surrounding the allied wars of intervention against Iraq and Serbia in the 1990s Both beginning and advanced readers of 20th century socio political thought gain greater insight into the existential political and philosophical influences that proved to be formative of Habermas s writing and activism in the public sphere The first part of the study emphasizes the unfolding linear view of Habermas s postwar history punctuated by the major existential and political situations of his young adult life from 1945 to 2000 The second part returns to the same time span in order to reconstruct Habermas s mature post Wall intellectual profile in contrast to the profiles of the preceding generation of 1945 and the later protesting generation of 1968 The third part examines the tremendous Habermas effect exercised on 20th century thought and public policy The concluding chapters discuss critically the lasting place as well as the limits of Habermas s achievement in contribution to a development of new critical theory The book is enhanced by an introduction that provides a historical and conceptual background to the major themes discussed twelve helpful thematic table

The Philosophy of Antonio Negri - Volume One Timothy S. Murphy, Abdul-Karim Mustapha, 2005-05-20 Outstanding contributors include Pierre Macherey Charles Wolfe Alex Callinicos and Judith Revel

The Quest for Community and Identity Robert E. Birt, 2002 This collection of essays engages two of the most fundamental social and political issues of our time community and identity Wrestling with the perplexities of these two issues within the Africana world the contributors delve into the influences of a postmodern world of globalization with outdated crumbling forms of identity and sociality In the wake of such an order new forms of identity and community must be established Birt has collected an informed group of contributors here who lay the foundation for a new approach to finding community and identity in the Africana world

The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences ,1998 Ghosts of the Revolution in Mexican Literature and Visual Culture Erica Segre, 2013 The official centenary commemorating the Mexican Revolution of 1910 provided scholars with an opportunity to consider memorialization and its legacies and afterimages in the twentieth century through to the present time This collection of new essays commissioned from experts based in Mexico Europe and the United States plays on the interrelated notions of revisitation haunting residual traces and valediction to interrogate the Revolution s multiple appearances reckonings and reconfigurations in art photography film narrative fiction periodicals travel testimonies and poetry examining key constituencies of creative media in Mexico that have been involved in historicizing contesting or evading the mixed legacies of the Revolution The interplay of themes practices and contexts across the chapters ranging from the 1920s through to the present day draws on interdisciplinary thinking as well as new findings framing the volume s discourse with a deliberately multi dimensional approach to an often homogenized topic The contributors scholarly referencing of artists novelists poets photographers foreign correspondents critics filmmakers and curators is detailed and wide ranging creating new juxtapositions that include some rarely studied material

Doom Helix James Axler, 2010-09-01 Devastation from the nukewar shattered civilization and left a planet both primitive and ripe for rebirth or retaking While the balance of power has fallen to avaricious amoral barons a handful of humanity still holds hope of a future worth fighting for or dying to defend If a better life inside the hellground exists Ryan Cawdor and his friends will find it The Deathlands feudal system may be hell on earth but it must be protected from invaders from Shadow Earth a parallel world stripped clean of its resources by the ruling conglomerate and its white coats Ryan and his band had a near fatal encounter with these genetically enhanced aggressors and their advanced weaponry and wags once before Only a fatal chink in enemy armor saved planet Earth from plunder Now these superhuman predators are back ready to topple the hellscape s baronies one by one The Specter; Original Essays on the Cold War and the Origins of McCarthyism Robert Griffith, Athan G. Theoharis, 1974 Women's Liberation and the Dialectics of Revolution Raya Dunayevskaya, 1985 Negotiating Statehood Tobias Hagmann, Didier Péclard, 2011-10-04 Negotiating Statehood Dynamics of Power and Domination in Africa provides a conceptual framework for analysing dynamic processes of state making in Africa Features a conceptual framework which provides a method for analysing the everyday making contestation and negotiation of statehood in contemporary Africa Conceptualizes who negotiates statehood the actors resources and repertoires where these negotiation processes take place and what these processes are all about ncludes a collections of essays that provides empirical and analytical insights into these processes in eight different country studies in Africa Critically reflects on the negotiability of statehood in Africa Public Opinion , 1898 Critical Theory and Democratic Vision Arnold L. Farr, 2009 dialogue with what Farr calls recent liberation philosophies such as feminism and African American philosophy All of these forms of philosophy are driven by a democratic impulse whereby we realize that there are many social groups that have been excluded from the democratic decision making process Book Jacket Out of the Depths William F. Woehrlin, 1986 Freedom and the Court Henry Julian Abraham, Barbara Ann Perry, 2003 Previous edition 6th published in 1994 The Concept and the Experience of Revolution Artemiï Magun, 2003 Freedom in Entangled Worlds S. Eben Kirksey, 2008 Moral Images of Freedom Drucilla Cornell, 2008 Moral Images of Freedom resurrects the Kantian project of affirmative political philosophy and traces its oft forgotten influences found in thinkers such as Martin Heidegger Ernst Cassirer Frantz Fanon and Walter Benjamin Drucilla Cornell responds to nihilistic claims about the empty purpose of critical theory in a world so utterly captured by violence in all of its worst forms economic social political and cultural Cornell instead draws together a sweeping thread of hope in the varied symbolic forms of freedom persistent throughout the work of a broader range of critical theorists and addresses the burning challenge for such work to respond seriously to the need for a decolonization of critical theory itself and a sustained commitment to the possible future of socialism
