Thompson, 1873

The name of Plymouth Church has been for many years a household word in countless communities at home and abroad and yet little was known of its definite history To be sure everybody knew that Henry Ward Beecher preached from its pulpit but prior to the late Silver Wedding few people could have answered correctly as to the number of years of his ministry in Brooklyn Mr Harvey S Weld supplied the writer with the facts and data which have been the foundation of this work The Manuals embracing the religious and historic annals of Plymouth Church and various other works relevant to the subject have been carefully explored and annotated and their documents and treasures have been profusely spread before our readers in the following pages Many things are hereafter spoken of which perhaps relate more properly to the life of the pastor than to the history of the church for although the effort has been made to speak only of that which related properly to the church the life of the one and the history of the other are so closely interwoven that it has been impossible to untwine the cord that binds them together Preface      Great Thoughts from Master Minds ,1898      The Bibliographer and Reference List ,1888      "The" Life of the Right Honourable William Ewart Gladstone George Barnett Smith, 1880      Catalogue of the Library of the Boston Athenæum Boston Athenaeum, 1874      Mrs. Annie Besant William Thomas Stead, 1891      The Unitarian Register ,1928      The English Catalogue of Books [annual] ,1892 Vols for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers      The Living Church ,1921      The Homiletic Review ,1890
