The Princess Helena Koltzoff Massalsky better known by her pseudonym of Dora d Istria came of the family of the Ghikas formerly princes of Wallachia and was born at Bucharest on the 22nd of January 1829 Through the care and conscientiousness of her instructor Mons Papadopoulos and her own remarkable capacity she acquired a very complete and comprehensive education When but eleven years old she composed a charming little story and before she had reached womanhood undertook a translation of the Iliad She showed no inclination for the frivolous amusements of a frivolous society Her view of life and its responsibilities was a serious one and she addressed all her energies to the work of self improvement and self culture She read and re read the literary masterpieces of England France and Germany As a linguist she earned special distinction Her intellectual faculties says her master M Papadopoulos expanded with so much rapidity that the professors charged with her instruction could not keep any other pupil abreast of her in the same studies Not only did she make a wholly unexpected and un hoped for progress but it became necessary for her teachers to employ with her a particular method her genius could not submit to the restraint of ordinary rules She was still in the springtime and flush of youth when she went on a tour to Germany and visited several German courts where she excited the same sentiments of admiration as in her own country it was impossible to see her without being attracted by so much intellect grace and amiability Travelling enlarged her horizon she was able to survey as from a watch tower the course of great political events and she found herself mixing continually with the most celebrated savants and statesmen of the age Her friendly relations with persons of very diverse opinions while enabling her to compare and contrast a great variety of theories did but strengthen in her the idea and sentiment of liberty which can alone conduct society to its true aim Finally from the Italian revolution of 1848 which awoke her warmest sympathies she learned to understand the fatal consequences of despotic government as well as the inevitable mistakes of freedom when first unfettered and allowed to walk alone At the age of twenty she was married February 1849 and soon afterwards she set out for St Petersburg where she was recognised as the ornament of the higher society In the midst of her numerous engagements in the midst of the homage rendered to her wit and grace she found time to collect a mass of valuable notes on the condition and inner life of the great Russian Empire several provinces of which she knew from personal observation From St Petersburg to Moscow from Odessa to Revel her untiring activity carried her Most social questions are at work under an apparent calm and offer therefore subjects well worthy of careful study especially to so grave and clear an intellect as that of Princess Dora d Istria who possessed in the highest degree the faculty of steady meditation amidst the movement and the world stir that surrounded her The world charmed by her personal attractions had no suspicion of the restlessness and activity of her inquiring mind Publisher and Bookseller ,1969 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series American Book Publishing Record ,1971 Choice ,1995
