Galvan,Victoria Hattam,2013-11-14 Political Creativity intervenes in the lively debate currently underway in the social sciences on institutional change Editors Gerald Berk Dennis C Galvan and Victoria Hattam along with the contributors to the volume show how institutions inevitably combine order and change because formal rules and roles are always available for reconfiguration Creative action is not the exception but the very process through which all political formations are built promulgated and changed Drawing on the rich cache of antidualist theoretical traditions from poststructuralism and ecological theory to constructivism and pragmatism a diverse group of scholars probes acts of social innovation in many locations land boards in Botswana Russian labor relations international statistics global supply chains Islamic economics in Algeria Islamic sects and state authority in Senegal and civil rights reform colonization industrial policy and political consulting in the United States These political scientists reconceptualize agency as a relational process that continually reorders the nature and meaning of people and things order as an assemblage that necessitates creative tinkering and interpretation and change as the unruly politics of time that confounds the conventional ordering of past present and future Political Creativity offers analytical tools for reimagining order and change as entangled processes Contributors Stephen Amberg Chris Ansell Gerald Berk Kevin Bruyneel Dennis C Galvan Deborah Harrold Victoria Hattam Yoshiko M Herrera Gary Herrigel Joseph Lowndes Ato Kwamena Onoma Adam Sheingate Rudra Sil Ulrich Voskamp Volker Wittke

The Journal of Developing Areas ,1998 Business and the State in Southern Africa Scott D. Taylor,2007

Why are productive development supporting relations between business and government still so rare in Africa Scott Taylor addresses this question examining state business coalitions as they emerge and endure or collapse in three representative countries Zambia Zimbabwe and South Africa Taylor illuminates three possible trajectories an abortive state business coalition as in Zambia the emergence of a short lived coalition as in Zimbabwe and a relatively successful and thus far durable coalition as in South Africa Though rooted in the southern African experience his cases reflect much of the variance in outcomes throughout sub Saharan Africa and shed light on the prospects for economic reform and development on the continent It explores why state business coalitions emerge or do not in Africa and why they endure or collapse drawing on three representative case studies

Rebuilding Devastated Economies in the Middle East Leonard Binder,2007-10-15

This book analyzes the political obstacles to the adoption of classic strategies of economic recovery and development as well as the economic consequences of democratic political reforms The case studies demonstrate that both rentierism and the democracy deficit result from a means end problem rather than an ideological problem The contributors focus on the role of the challenged rulers of shaky states where economic devastation has been the consequence of civil strife often aided and abetted by external influences But if there can be no successful rebuilding of devastated economies without some significant regime change we seem to be asking these governments to put themselves out of business
