Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1993 Using Illustrations to Preach with Power Bryan Chapell, 1993 Illustrations are integral to powerful biblical preaching and this work demonstrates why. It also shares how to find and integrate illustrations effectively without compromising the Bible's message. The Quest for Preaching Power John Nicholls Booth, 1943 For Our Good Always Jason S. DeRouchie, Jason Gile, Kenneth J. Turner, 2024-09-12 With a title adapted from Deuteronomy 6:24, For Our Good Always is a collection of 25 essays from evangelical scholars on the message of Deuteronomy and its influence on Christian Scripture. No other book colors the tapestry of biblical thought quite like Deuteronomy. It synthesized the theology of the Pentateuch, provided Israel with a constitution for guiding their covenant relationship with Yahweh in the promised land, and served as a primary lens through which later biblical authors interpreted Israel's covenant history. Recent advances in scholarship on Deuteronomy and developments in biblical interpretation are raising fresh questions and opening new paths for exploration. This collection of studies wrestles with Deuteronomy from historical, literary, theological, and canonical perspectives and offers new questions, presents original discoveries, and makes innovative proposals. The volume is offered in honor of Daniel I. Block on the occasion of his 70th birthday. Few Old Testament scholars have worked so ably, carefully, and intentionally to help the church and the academy grasp the message of Deuteronomy. Block's own studies always exhibit an admirable balance of exegetical rigor, literary and theological awareness, and pastoral care, and for well over a decade he has, like the priest scribe Ezra, devoted himself to the study, practice, and teaching of the Deuteronomistic Torah. Ezra 7:10, helping and urging others to hear the life-giving gospel of Moses in Deuteronomy. The international group of specialists that contributed to this volume consists of Daniel Block's colleagues, friends, and former students. It is their hope that these studies will in various ways supplement Daniel Block's work serving the church and the academy and honoring the God of Israel.

Then a missionary introduced him to the art of Bible storying, an imaginative way to engage in the scriptures through storytelling, creative reflection, and dialogue. He soon discovered that Bible storying was not only an effective teaching approach but a powerful way to awaken people to new purpose and identity rooted in the biblical narrative. In 2012, Michael partnered with Sparkhouse to create Echo the Story curriculum based on his approach to Bible storying. Michael has seen people of all ages
