Different Forms of Microcredit and Social Business Paola Avallone, Donatella Strangio, 2024-09-30 This edited collection discusses the evolution of microfinance and social business from the late medieval period to the modern era The book fills a gap in financial history by exploring lesser known informal forms of credit granted to the poorest people which have often not been recorded in writing The book highlights the particularly innovative forms of credit developed in Italy but also includes global contributions on the presence of microfinance and social business across Europe Asia and the Middle East This book illuminates for different countries and periods forms of financial assistance available for those not deemed as creditworthy whether through the institution of the Monti di Pietà an Italian credit instrument of the late Middle Ages loans granted by shopkeepers pawnbroking or mutual aid distributed by lottery or religious institutions The geographical diversity of the chapters enables comparative analyses to be drawn between different forms of credit and financial systems as they developed over a long period The research presented offers new perspectives for contemporary microfinance as well as reconstructing the experience of those living in poverty in a range of social economic and religious contexts The book will be of interest to a broad readership including those working in financial economic and social history

Pietà Michael Fitzgerald, 2021-06-01 These are the last days of 1999 At St Peter's Basilica in Rome as the world waits for the new millennium Lucy a young Australian woman looks up at Michelangelo's Pietà behind its pane of bullet proof glass a red kabbalah string circles her wrist She has come with the mysterious parcel her recently deceased mother asked her to bring to the box marked POSTE VATICANE But before Rome there is Saint Cloud

Here on the outskirts of Paris Lucy works as an au pair for Jean Claude and his wife Mathilde When Mathilde leaves for Central Australia to research the Aboriginal artist Kumanjaya Lucy's circle of contacts becomes smaller and strangely intimate Jean Claude the baby Felix for whom she cares and the couple's charismatic friend Sbastien a marble restorer Yet Lucy's homesickness for Australia and its vastness haunts her world surfacing in the memories of her mother the Australian garden at Empress Josephine's Malmaison and Mathilde's letters from Alice Springs Lucy's mother Jude who was a nun in the 1970s once warned her daughter to be careful what she wished for It is a caution that marks but rarely alters the choices these characters make With lushness and tenderness and revelation Fitzgerald's unforgettable novel Piet exquisitely captures the glorious and imperfect relationships between parents and children between art and life Vivid clever and moving Piet is a timely meditation on art icons iconoclasm and the mysteries of love and time Gail Jones award winning author of Our Shadows Notes on the National gallery.
