The Future Is Now Anthroposophy At The New Millennium:

The Future is Now Sevak Gulbekian, 1999 Rudolf Steiner spoke at various times of a period that encompasses the end of the twentieth century and the beginning of the new millennium He described it as a time of great spiritual struggle in which forces of destruction would wage war on benevolent forces and how the future of culture and civilization would depend on the outcome In his many statements on this matter Steiner warned in particular members of the Anthroposophical Society and movement that they would be called on to develop vital spiritual capacities that are becoming increasingly critical for human progress In these eighteen essays contributors offer their thoughts on the question of where anthroposophy in its earthly manifestation now stands and to what extent it is fulfilling its tasks This commentary on the challenges ahead offers us all a chance to reassess prepare and wake up This compilation features eighteen essays by Jesaiah ben Aharon Mario Betti Terry Boardman Peter Bridgmont Gilbert Childs Dor Deverell Michaela Gl ckler Sevak Gulbekian Brien Masters Thomas Meyer Bernard Nesfield Cookson Sergei O Prokofieff Richard Seddon Nick Thomas Peter Tradowsky Hans peter van Manen Edward Warren and Olive Whicher Steiner Education and Social Issues Brien Masters, 2007 Is the philosophy we use to educate our children responsible at least partially for the attitudes and general tone of our societies A recent UNICEF report on wealthy countries saw the United States and the United Kingdom ranked lowest in the quality of life for young people across a wide range of categories including poverty health drugs friendships and happiness According to experts those nations that performed best in the survey have created child friendly societies in which for example young people are not pressured to achieve academically until their teens In contrast educators in the US and UK generally press toward economic success using education as a means of generating through No Child Left Behind and increasing use of tests the high achievers needed it is thought to produce material wealth Brien Masters an educator for more than fifty years asserts that education has a central role to play in bringing into human lives those qualities that can take us forward to a progressive future He proposes that Rudolf Steiner s educational approach which is practiced primarily in the Waldorf schools around the world is well equipped to enable this In Steiner Education and Social Issues via a series of short engaging chapters and based on his broad personal experience of teaching and teacher training Masters tackles a wide range of modern social issues from drugs and nutrition to boredom to the influence of television and multicultural societies This is a wise and informative guide for parents teachers and anyone interested in the future development of our children and our culture

Beings Hear It! Sergei O. Prokofieff, 2014-03-12 During the Christmas period of 1923 4 Rudolf Steiner refounded the Anthroposophical Society at its headquarters in Dornach Switzerland This important event which has come to be known as the Christmas Conference can be studied on many levels and its many mysteries have been central to Sergei O Prokofieff s anthroposophical research over the years His beginning point has been an enduring question What did Rudolf Steiner mean when he called the Christmas Conference the start of a World Turning point of Time In this far reaching work the author working from several different viewpoints guides the reader towards an answer Prokofieff suggests that the impulse of the Christmas Conference can only be reenlivened today through conscious action by individuals to experience its spiritual essence Rather than offering dogmatic conclusions he opens up paths of approaching this goal by throwing light on different aspects of the Conference and what lies at its heart the Foundation Stone and its Meditation In particular Prokofieff explores three key perspectives the connection of the Christmas Conference with humanity s evolution the inner relationship of each individual anthroposophist to the Christmas Conference and the significance of the Conference to Rudolf Steiner himself Although this is major work of some length the individual chapters of May Human Beings Hear It are complete in themselves and can therefore be studied independently of each other

Architecture as a Synthesis of the Arts Rudolf Steiner, 1999 8 lectures plus extracts and notes CW 286 This collection introduces Rudolf Steiner s vision of architecture as a culmination of the arts Such architecture unites sculpture painting and engraving as well as drama music and dance a vital synthesis of all the arts working in cooperation through the common ideal of awakening us to our individuality and task in life Unlike many of his contemporaries Steiner s ideas did not remain abstract Within his lifetime he was able to design and construct a number of buildings including his architectural masterpiece the Goetheanum a center for culture and arts near Basle Switzerland In these lectures Steiner describes with reference to the Goetheanum the importance of an architecturally coherent and integrated community and how this in turn affects social unity and harmony These lectures offer a panorama of the development of architecture in parallel with the emerging human soul in human evolution This is a valuable collection for all students of architecture the arts social science and those looking for a deeper spiritual understanding of the art of architecture Includes eight color plates and 30 black white illustrations
