The Future Of Christian Broadcasting In Europe:

The Future of Christian Broadcasting in Europe Peter Elvy, 1990-01-01 Religion in Modern Europe Grace Davie, 2000-08-03 Religion in Modern Europe examines religion as a form of collective memory This is a memory held in place by Europe's institutional churches educational systems and the mass media all of which are themselves responding to rapid social and economic change Europe's religious memory is approached in the following ways as vicarious a particularly European characteristic as precarious especially among young people and as it is portrayed by the media The memory may fragment be disputed and in extreme cases disappear Alternatives may emerge The challenge for European societies is to affirm healthy mutations in religious memory and discourage others The book also examines the increasing diversity of Europe's religious life European Societies Series Series Editor Colin Crouch Very few of the existing sociological texts which compare different European societies on specific topics are accessible to a broad range of scholars and students The European Societies series will help fill this gap in the literature and attempt to answer questions such as Is there really such a thing as a European model of society Do the economic and political integration processes of the European Union also imply convergence in more general aspects of social life like family or religious behaviour What do the societies of Western Europe have in common with those further to the east This series will cover the main social institutions although not every author will cover the full range of European countries As well as surveying existing knowledge in a way that will be useful to students each book will also seek to contribute to our growing knowledge of what remains in many respects a sociologically unknown continent Opportunities and Limitations in Religious Broadcasting Peter Elvy, 1991 EBU Review European Broadcasting Union, 1987 Routledge Library Editions: Sociology of Religion Various, 2021-07-14 This set collects together in 19 volumes a wealth of texts on Sociology of Religion An invaluable reference resource it contains classic books on a wide range of topics including religion and violence religion and family life religion and society culture and class World Christian Trends Ad30-ad2200 (hb) , 2001 International Christian Literature Documentation Project Douglas W. Geyer, 1993 Against All Odds Wendy Alec, 2004 Losing Faith in the BBC at a Crucial Time for Religious Broadcasting in Great Britain Nigel Holmes, 2000 Using the corporation's own reports the author confirms his contention that the BBC is abandoning its commitment to religious broadcasting and therefore reneging on its public service broadcasting ethic The book puts on record loss of airtime replacement of high quality religious programs by fillers and marginalization The Sociology of Religion Grace Davie, 2008 The war of words Asa Briggs, 1961 NRB , 2005 A Distinct People Robert E. Hooper, 2001-12-24 The result of over a decade of research This is a groundbreaking study that will be a jumping off point for work on Churches of Christ for many years to come Dr Douglas A Foster Assistant Professor of Church History Abilene Christian University An important book carefully researched and written and badly needed by our brotherhood I am delighted that it is now available to everyone concerned about our past or our future Dr Bill Humble Director Center for

Restoration Studies Abilene Christian University Few people are as well read in American Church History as Hooper His insights into personalities and issues come from careful research Some will shock traditionalists others will annoy revisionists and all will engage serious students Dr Rubel Shelly Minister Woodmont Hills Church of Christ A quick paced and engaging narrative In its pages the reader comes to know the giants who have shaped our fellowship I would recommend this book to all members of the church who want to understand where we are and where we are going Gregory A Tidwell Minister
