The Flowers Of Eire:

The Flowers of Eire Janet Frascarelli, 2001-04-02 The Flowers of Eire follows the Culhane family from their expulsion from Ireland throughout their lives in the newly forming continent of Australia. It is a saga of a brother and sister Lonnie and Bridget in their never ending search for their younger brother Liam who had been taken from them to be adopted by an wealthy English family. Set in the rugged sheep country of Victoria Province in the mid nineteenth century we are entwined in the lives of these two young people and witness their trials and triumphs as they continue their quest to be reunited with their sibling. From Ardara County Donegal in Ireland to Dublin and on to Echuca Australia. The Flowers of Eire is a tale of perseverance and never ceasing faith and hope and is followed by a sequel Rory which follows the life of Lonnie's son Royal Navy Assistant Surgeon Rory Culhane.

The Sons of Eire Fergus MacEire, 1872 The Epic Ryan Keith McConkey, 2006-02 It has been about two thousand years since the life of Jesus Christ but his memory has not been forgotten. The Bible is the most read book of all time and recently movies have come out about Jesus. How then is it that Christianity has gotten so far from the teachings and life of the basis for the belief? We have gone from a man who always showed love to everyone and a man who was poor in earthly standards to a religion with materialism and elitism. Enter a world where Kings rule and Priests reign. In this world there are only two countries and neither knows about the other one. The first country is ruled by the High Priest who speaks on behalf of the creator. The people of this country have a large set of rules to follow and because of their morality they have thrived as a nation. Their city has large buildings and their temple resembles that of a very powerful King. The people here worship the creator and they do not tolerate anyone who doesn't believe what they do. The country is divided into two classes the believers and the unbelievers. The unbelievers are struck with poverty and disease. They are on the brink of annihilation with no hope in sight. Across the ocean is another country that is ruled by their King. The King is a servant of the people and he always puts the people's needs in front of his own. His family has always been in power but the King is growing old and he was not able to have a son only a daughter. The people of this country do not worship the creator for they know nothing about him. They put all of their hope in their King. A new man soon arrives to this country and he catches the eye of the princess. The people look to this man to be their new King but this man has ulterior motives for the throne. The only one who can challenge him for the throne is a young man who is in an inner struggle between the forces of evil and the forces of good. You see the world has not always been this way for the creator was once the focus of all who roamed the earth. What went wrong and why did the creator let it happen? Will the forces of dark win or will light once again cover the world? Will false religion win or will love?
