The Foreign Policy of Senegal W. A. E. Skurnik, 1972      Türkiye and West Africa Relations: Senegal, Ivory Coast, Niger and Guinea-Bissau Abdu Djamanca, Ali Çağlar, 2024-09-11 This book is focused on an overview of Türkiye's increased engagement with Africa particularly West Africa in recent years. It analyses this relationship by applying some concepts like soft power, the influences of its instruments in international politics. Shortly it examines this engagement focusing on Türkiye's Africa relations especially since The 1998 Opening Action Plan relative to the enhancement of cooperation in the political, economic and cultural fields. The book tries to answer the main questions of why Türkiye has so much engagement and a very fast opening toward Africa especially in West Africa and how the interaction is conducted. The book focuses on the cases Türkiye and Senegal, Ivory Coast, Niger and Guinea Bissau, examining the cooperation between Türkiye and these countries. It explores the aspects and interests of this cooperation through three variables: Political and diplomatic issues, economic and trade issues, and cultural issues, all centered on three major theoretical frameworks: public diplomacy, economic diplomacy, and cultural diplomacy.

Foreign Policy of Iran under President Hassan Rouhani's First Term (2013–2017) Luciano Zaccara, 2020-06-22 The book deals with President Hassan Rouhani's conceptual approach to foreign policy. It discusses the main pillars of thinking underpinning Rouhani's administration and the school of thought associated with it, with a focus on issues pertaining to development as well as international relations. The signature of the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action in 2015 showed the Iranian commitment towards the international requests on guarantees and transparency on its nuclear enrichment program. The book analyses the actual impact of the nuclear deal on the Gulf regional politics, with especial emphasis on the Iran-Saudi Arabia balance of power and the internal implications at political and economic level. It will assess the success or failure of the nuclear deal JCPOA as a foreign policy tool and its impact for Iran and the region. The book also analyses Iran's relations with other Gulf Arab states, Latin America, Africa, and its war on terror along with its allies Syria and Iraq.

Diplomatic Strategies of Nations in the Global South Jacqueline Braveboy-Wagner, 2016-10-19 At a time of change in the international system, this book examines how non-traditional leading nations from the Global South have fared to date and what the chances are of their rise to continue. In the second decade of the twenty-first century, the enthusiasm of observers of the international scene about the rise of the rest is waning as many countries that were expected to lead the evolving multipolar order are experiencing economic contraction and governance problems. In order to predict further developments, the contributors to this volume focus on the types and sources of the diplomatic strategies that must be executed by rising states if they are to preserve domestic advances as well as gain influence regionally and internationally Through a comprehensive examination of case studies from Latin America Africa Asia and the Middle East they show that while there are commonalities among these rising states unique domestic conditions values and traditions impact and predict diplomatic strategizing and the ability for sustained projection on the international scene U.S. Army Area Handbook for Senegal ,1963 Documents on India's Foreign Policy ,1975 American Foreign Policy ,2008 French Foreign Policy ,1967 Defense & Foreign Affairs Handbook ,1980 India's Foreign Relations Avtar Singh Bhasin,2005 No Foreign Office today is content to merely build friendly and good relations in the classical sense Even economic content of diplomacy which had gained currency in recent decades is no longer the catch phrase in the conduct of international relations The sophistication and the growing needs of the economy coupled with the demands of globalization have brought about a qualitative change in the conduct of international relations Energy thermal and nuclear science and technology biotechnology information technology nanotechnology environment space sustainable development PURA and the like are now at the core of diplomatic vocabulary Market protection is giving way to dismantling of trade barriers Competition is the mantra free trade the dharma and multilateralism the altar on which the economic relations are now conducted Energy the strategic need for which has spurred unprecedented demand has today become the centerpiece of foreign policy No wonder in India too the energy whether nuclear natural gas or hydrocarbon dominates the foreign policy debate as in many other countries The challenge between high growth and social progress hitherto the attribute of domestic politics has today assumed international ramifications Neither is possible without foreign investment and modern technology The problem of keeping the gap narrow between rich and the poor maintaining economic vitality and efficiency attracting greater foreign investment and enhancing the competitiveness of indigenous industry against globalization trends promoting mega projects and helping the smaller entrepreneurs to survive and stand competition are some of the challenges which have assumed foreign policy implications even as they are governed by domestic economic compulsions While much of the burden of reconciling the conflicting demands of modernization and globalization has to be met by economic and financial experts the Foreign Service bureaucracy today is shouldering its own share of the challenge The 756 documents in this compendium provide an ample proof of this Annual Report of the Council on Foreign Relations Council on Foreign Relations,1982 China's Foreign Affairs ,2014 New Zealand Foreign Affairs Review ,1971 French Foreign Policy France.
