The Fragile Peace:

The Fragile Peace, 1919-39 James Cochrane, Reader's Digest Editors, Andrew Kerr-Jarrett, 2000 The Fragile Peace Robert Imlay, 1975 Northern Ireland Feargal Cochrane, 2021-03-09 The complete history of Northern Ireland from the Irish Civil War to Brexit A wonderful book beautifully written Informative and incisive Irish Times After two decades of relative peace following the Good Friday Agreement of 1998 the Brexit referendum in 2016 reopened the Northern Ireland question In this thoughtful and engaging book Feargal Cochrane considers the region's troubled history from the struggle for Irish independence in the nineteenth century to the present New chapters explain the reasons for the suspension of devolved government at Stormont in 2017 and its restoration in 2020 as well as the consequences for Northern Ireland of Britain's decision to leave the European Union Providing a complete account of the province's hundred year history this book is essential reading to understand the present dimensions of the Northern Irish conflict The Fragile Peace 1919-39 James Cochrane, 1999 The Interaction Between Local and International Peacebuilding Actors Sara Hellmüller, 2017-12-22 This book helps to better understand how the interaction between local and international peacebuilding actors influences the outcomes of their programs Based on the case study of Ituri in the Democratic Republic of Congo it analyses the relationships between local and international peacebuilding actors over the long term and assesses ways to overcome the obstacles to more cooperative partnerships Focusing on perceptions the book nuances existing definitions of war peacebuilding and peace and allows for a more comprehensive understanding of conflict contexts Thereby it contributes to the literature on peacebuilding effectiveness and makes concrete suggestions for translating these findings into practice SUNSET PAUL ANTHONY, 2008-05-19 SUNSET is a collection of poetry from a crime fighting author who has previously published fictional novels on policing terrorism and the raging drugs culture Paul Anthony traces the life of a relaxed carefree teenager in the Sixties to a man at the dawn of the Twenty First Century The journey captures an age of experiences peaceful and pleasant violent and murderous The voyage from one century to another smoothly results in a unique portrayal of the era in which we live From love and romance war and peace sorrow and surrender to private tears and unknown fears This is a roller coaster of poetic emotion Leanne's Journey J. R. Runnels, The wind howled like a banshee clawing at the ancient stone of Blackwood Manor its icy fingers rattling the leaded windows Inside Count Vlad a creature of both immense power and profound solitude sat bathed in the flickering light of a vast fireplace The flames danced in a macabre ballet casting long distorted shadows that writhed across the intricately carved oak paneling He was a study in contrasts a man of breathtaking beauty his pale skin stretched taut over sharp cheekbones his eyes the color of a stormy night cobalt blue to obsidian black yet his features held the harsh angles of a predator etched by centuries of darkness and a life lived far beyond the boundaries of mortality He sighed a sound like the rustling of dry leaves in the autumn wind He turned from the window his eyes falling upon a single perfect white orchid sitting in a crystal vase on his desk The delicate flower with its exquisite petals and intoxicating fragrance was a stark contrast to the grim reality of his life. It was a gift, a rare and precious thing, one he'd sent to Leanne only hours before. The thought of her, a flicker of warmth in his otherwise desolate existence, brought a faint smile to his lips. Leanne was an anomaly, a woman who somehow saw beyond the darkness that cloaked him, who saw the heart of a man hidden beneath layers of cynicism and power. She was his refuge, his only true connection to the world of mortals. Their bond was not a love story in the traditional sense, rather, an intricate dance between two souls seeking solace in a world consumed by shadows. A quiet comfort in the darkness, a fragile understanding that bloomed in the most unlikely of places. And tonight, he found himself anticipating her next visit, her soft presence, a glimmer of hope in the overwhelming solitude of his immortal existence. Her past was not a gentle tapestry woven with threads of joy and comfort. It was a harsh, unforgiving landscape scarred by loss and etched with the marks of trauma. Alexander, then a mere lieutenant in Vlad's army, was a figure sculpted from the very essence of the Carpathians themselves: strong, silent, and impossibly lethal. His eyes, the color of an erupting volcano, crimson red, held a chilling intensity that spoke of countless battles fought and won, his movements as fluid and deadly as a panther's. But even in the midst of carnage, a different kind of beauty bloomed. It was in the quiet moments between battles, amidst the ravaged landscape, that Alexander met Leanne. He had found her in town, in Vlad's garden, within his castle walls. They started eating lunch together whenever they could, stolen moments during the day when Vlad could not touch them. He did not know the extent of Vlad's obsession with Leanne or their lost connection. Leanne, with her hair the color of spun moonlight and eyes that held the wisdom of ages, was the antithesis of the brutal world that surrounded them. Her laughter, a tinkling bell in the shadowed forests, was a balm to Alexander's wounded soul, a counterpoint to the constant symphony of violence that echoed through the Carpathians. Vlad's rage was a physical thing, a tangible heat that radiated from him as he tore through the opulent chambers of Blackwood Castle. He'd spent weeks, months, even years, leading his brutal campaign across the ravaged northern territories, his mind constantly returning to the vision of Leanne, her laughter echoing faintly in the clang of steel and the screams of his enemies. He'd entrusted her safety to Alexander, his most loyal, or so he'd thought, knight, a man bound to him by oaths of fealty older than the kingdom itself. Who will Leanne choose to have a life with?

The Fragile Peace Paul Anthony, 1996. Parallel stories of the IRA and the police in England, both racing to keep one step ahead. A Provo hitman in the pay of the British Intelligence Service is under orders to kill Billy and Liam, each on opposing sides of the conflict, before they destroy the fragile peace.

Humanitarian Intervention and Conflict Resolution in West Africa John M. Kabia, 2016-05-13. The end of the Cold War has been characterized by a wave of violent civil wars that have produced unprecedented humanitarian catastrophe and suffering. Although mostly intra-state, these conflicts have spread across borders and threatened international peace and security. One of the worst affected regions is West Africa, which has been home to some of Africa's most brutal and intractable conflicts for more than a decade. This volume locates the peacekeeping operations of the Economic Community of West

African States ECOWAS within an expanded post Cold War conceptualization of humanitarian intervention It examines the organization s capacity to protect civilians at risk in civil conflicts and to facilitate the processes of peacemaking and post war peace building Taking the empirical case of ECOWAS the book looks at the challenges posed by complex political emergencies CPEs to humanitarian intervention and traces the evolution of ECOWAS from an economic integration project to a security organization examining the challenges inherent in such a transition East Asia's Other Miracle Alex J. Bellamy,2017-10-06 East Asia until recently the scene of widespread blood letting has achieved relative peace A region that at the height of the Cold War had accounted for around eighty percent of the world s mass atrocities has experienced such a decline in violence that by 2015 it accounted for less than five percent This book explains East Asia s other miracle and asks whether it is merely a temporary blip in the historical cycle or the dawning of a new and more peaceful era for the region It argues that the decline of mass atrocities in East Asia resulted from four interconnected factors the consolidation of states and emergence of responsible sovereigns the prioritization of economic development through trade the development of norms and habits of multilateralism and transformations in the practice of power politics Particular attention is paid to North Korea and Myanmar countries whose experience has bucked regional trends largely because these states have not succeeded in consolidating themselves to the point where they no longer depend on violence to survive Although the region faces several significant future challenges this book argues that the much reduced incidence of mass atrocities in East Asia is likely to be sustained into the foreseeable future A Fragile Peace Teresa Crane,1984 Cinematic Cold War Tony Shaw,Denise Jeanne Youngblood,2010 The first book length survey of cinema s vital role in the Cold War cultural combat between the U S and the USSR Focuses on 10 films five American and five Soviet both iconic and lesser known works showing that cinema provided a crucial outlet for the global debate between democratic and communist ideologies Balkan Incelemesi Yılı ,1996 A People's Contest Phillip Shaw Paludan,1996 Pt 1 Learning war Communities go to war Forging foreign and domestic weapons The ways of making war The dialogue of politics 1861 1862 pt 2 Making war Congress and the capitalists Congress and the second American system Agriculture and the benefits of war Industrial workers and the costs of war The meanings of emancipation The dialogue of politics loyalty and unity 1863 1864 pt 3 Finding war s meanings World images of war Frankenstein and Everyman Sherman Grant and modern war The scars of war The coming of the Lord religion in the Civil War era Conclusion Kansas H. Craig Miner,2002 Chronicles the history of Kansas from 1854 to 2000 discussing how specific people and events shaped the culture of the state The Watches of the Sacred Passion Peter Gallwey,1896 The Watches of the Sacred Passion with Before and After Peter Gallwey,1896 The Bible and Modern Discoveries Henry Andrew Harper,1895 Official Records ,2002 The American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser,1949
