The Freedom Forever I Treasured

Joanne Marxhausen

The Freedom Forever I Treasured:

The Freedom Forever, I Treasured Steven Liu, 2003 This is the true account of my personal journey to freedom I truly believe that freedom is the most valuable commodity to us as human beings For many of us freedom comes with a huge price tag I was separated from my family as a teenager in order to escape from the communist governed Vietnam This escape meant crossing the South China Sea There were more than 165 people on a small wooden fishing boat each hoping to survive and reach freedom Unfortunately my first attempt failed I was captured and locked up in jail for eight months Although my second attempt succeeded I traveled 14 days at sea with no food and water and was robbed 21 times by sea pirates Through that appalling journey women were raped and people were killed Hope was the only element providing us with the energy to move forward toward that freedom land I grew up in a wonderful family filled with love and care just like many of you I never thought that I would one day face so much turmoil and hardship in my life Our property was confiscated by the government My father was thrown in jail for a year and was accused of being a capitalist by the North Vietnamese government My mother's life was turned upside down dealing with all the tragic events occurring among us Our family was never the same after South Vietnam was defeated in 1975 I believe that I have earned my freedom through suffering many atrocious experiences sadness sorrow and humiliation throughout many years of my life Nevertheless living in the United States of America today with my total freedom made it all worth it Oswald Chambers - Hidden Treasures Oswald

Chambers, 2025-12-17 Hidden Treasures continues the spiritual legacy of Oswald Chambers with a call that reaches the depths of the soul to live for Christ with daily and wholehearted surrender This devotional gathers reflections that confront awaken and guide the heart toward the will of God where faith ceases to be theory and becomes a life fully yielded Each reading invites you to move beyond religious routine to listen for the Spirit's voice amid the fast pace of modern life and to cultivate the sensitivity Chambers saw as essential for every disciple obedience that is immediate joyful and without reservation Chambers once wrote The Christian life cannot exist apart from intimacy with God and God has hidden treasures for those who spend time alone in His presence This devotional is born from that conviction Inspired by the spiritual depth present in his writings Hidden Treasures calls us to pause open our hearts and allow God to illuminate what so often remains veiled Each page becomes a doorway into the secret place a space to listen to surrender and to receive the richness that only intimacy with Christ can reveal Chambers was known for his clear and direct vision faith is not a feeling it is surrender Obedience is not optional it is the way This book carries that essence and expresses it through daily reflections that enlighten challenge and draw the soul toward deeper spiritual life Within these pages you will find devotionals that help you Examine your heart with honesty Discern God's voice in everyday moments Lay down the self to embrace His will Strengthen your faith in seasons of weariness uncertainty or inner struggle Live with an eternal rather than a merely earthly perspective In a world where the urgent constantly competes with the important this book becomes a spiritual anchor Each day invites you to
