Conscience in World Religions is a unique collection of papers which allows the reader to compare and contrast the origins and development of the concept of conscience within different Christian traditions Judaism Islam and Buddhism The first part of the book based upon extensive research of the Christian debate of conscience explores the dynamic relation between authority revelation and education for both the individual and the community It provides the reader with an insight into approaches to and interpretations of sources found within Roman Catholicism Protestantism and Orthodoxy The second part of the text provides an enthralling and scholarly study of the previously relatively unexplored Jewish Islamic and Buddhist viewpoints on the concept of conscience This book is a thought provoking collection for all those interested in exploring the many facets of this most fascinating of subjects    Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001    The Future of Anglicanism Robert Hannaford,1996    Anglican Essays William Lang Paige Cox,1923    The Church in Anglican Theology Kenneth A. Locke,2016-09-17 This book is the first systematic attempt to describe a coherent and comprehensive Anglican understanding of Church Rather than focusing on one school of thought Dr Locke unites under one ecclesiological umbrella the seemingly disparate views that have shaped Anglican reflections on Church He does so by exploring three central historical developments 1 the influence of Protestantism 2 the Anglican defence of episcopacy and 3 the development of the Anglican practice of authority Dr Locke demonstrates how the interaction of these three historical influences laid the foundations of an Anglican understanding of Church that continues to guide and shape Anglican identity He shows how this understanding of Church has shaped recent Anglican ecumenical dialogues with Reformed Lutheran Orthodox and Roman Catholic Churches Drawing on the principle that dialogue with those who are different can lead to greater self understanding and self realization Dr Locke demonstrates that Anglican self identity rests on firmer ecclesiological foundations than is sometimes supposed    Christian Work ,1896    Essay on the Prevailing Methods of the Evangelization of the Non-Christian World Robert Needham Cust,1894    Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1999    Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1997    Religion Index Two ,1999    The Encyclopædia Britannica James Louis Garvin,1926    Essays Catholic & Critical by Members of the Anglican Communion Edward Gordon Selwyn,1954    Johnson's Universal Cyclopaedia ,1895
