Strange Prophecies Anew:

"Strange Prophecies Anew" Tony Trigilio, 2000 This book revives questions of religious and political authority in poetic prophecy It argues that modern prophecy operates within a dynamic of continuity and estrangement that combines immanent and transcendent modes of representation creating a poetry that revises the very tradition that authorizes it The unique grandeur of the Bible, a new plea for an old book William Anderson, 1884 Toward a New, Praxis-Oriented Missiology Rosalia Meza, 2020-06-17 The new and different frontiers and factors discussed in missiology are reshaping the meaning of mission Christian mission today is searching for new directions to approach the postmodern postcolonial and ecumenical paradigms This book argues that mission is the process of embodying the content and praxis of the gospel not the transmission of knowledge that keeps an established structure and culture alive often justified by a specific ecclesiological model Thus mission initiates a transformative process of faith which leads to personal and social transformation This work brings into dialogue Stephen Bevans's notion of mission as prophetic dialogue and Paulo Freire's concept of conscientiza o The aim is not to discover a method to do mission but to rescue the process that leads to transformation allowing one to encounter the other where they are while respecting the uniqueness of every person culture church and society Prophetic dialogue enriched by conscientiza o and vice versa can open new perspectives within missiology and provide a new approach to mission praxis This approach is then analyzed through the experiential and transformative elements of the Verbum Dei charism applied in ministry demonstrating the effectiveness of prophetic dialogue and conscientiza o in the Verbum Dei Missionary Fraternity mission praxis Male Poets and the Agon of the Mother Hannah Baker Saltmarsh, 2019-04-23 A thoughtful exploration of male poets' contributions to the literature of motherhood In the late 1950s the notion of a mother poem emerged during a confessional literary movement that freed poets to use personal psychosexual material about intimate topics such as parents' childhood, failed marriages, children's infidelity and mental illness In Male Poets and the Agon of the Mother Hannah Baker Saltmarsh argues that male poets have contributed to what we think of as the literature of motherhood that confessional and postconfessional modes have been formative in the way male poets have grappled with the stories of their mothers and how those stories reflect on the writers and their artistic identities Through careful readings of formative elegies and homages written by male poets of this time Saltmarsh explores how they engaged with femininity and feminine voices in the 1950s and 60s and sheds light on the inheritance of confessional motifs of gender and language as demonstrated by postconfessional writers responding to the rich subject matter of motherhood within the contexts of history, myth and literature A foreword is provided by Jo Gill, professor of twentieth century and American literature in the Department of English and associate dean for education at the University of Exeter Whitman's Queer Children Catherine A. Davies, 2012-04-19 The first full length study to explore the idea of a gay epic in American poetry George Eliot's Works George Eliot, 1884 A New Translation of the Hebrew Prophets George Rapall Noyes, 1874 A New Testament
