Strangers May Marry Anne Hampson, 1982

The Islamic Law of Personal Status Jamal J. Nasir, 2021-10-05 This new edition of the authoritative English language treatment of Islamic personal status law gives practitioners and courts throughout the world direct access to this important body of law in its most up to date development All Middle Eastern and North African Arab states are covered new to this edition is coverage of recent provisions enacted in Kuwait Yemen and Sudan The chapter on dissolution of marriage has been completely revised to reflect current legal interpretation and judicial practice in this rapidly changing area of Islamic law Also new and especially valuable are English versions for the first time anywhere of fundamental Shiite and Jaafari legal works with the most thorough analysis and commentary available in any non Arabic source Dr Nasir's much appreciated methodology has been continued since the very successful first edition of 1986 For each topic e.g. marriage dower dissolution of marriage parentage inheritance and waqf he begins with a consideration of the subject in Sharia law and then goes on to present legislation and contemporary views in particular Arab countries This approach while it clearly manifests the continuity of Islamic law respecting personal status is of great practical value to judges and practitioners especially those who must resolve disputes under Islamic law in non Muslim countries

The Status of Women under Islamic Law and Modern Islamic Legislation Jamal J. Nasir, 2009-04-15 This book is believed to be the first of its kind written by a renowned Muslim lawyer in the English language and by an Arab author who is probably the leading authority writing in English in the subject of Islamic law the Sharia and modern Islamic legislation There has long been a need for an objective study such as this dealing with the legal rights and obligations of women under the Sharia and under modern Arab Islamic legislation Seen within the broad principles of Islamic law the book examines the status of women with regard to marriage the iddat parentage and fosterage and custody and fills an important gap left by recent and more general publications on Islamic law The author has researched original Arabic and Islamic text books and reviewed legislation in the different Arab countries in order to present the most up to date information on the subject It is hoped that this clear objective account will dispel many of the commonly held misconceptions about the status of Muslim women in the modern world This book will provide an enlightenment and deeper understanding of the subject not only for legal practitioners but for all those concerned or with an interest in the subject particularly Muslim communities in non Muslim countries indeed non Muslim women who may be or indeed non Muslim women who may be married to Muslims

The January-May Marriage in Nineteenth-Century British

Strangers May Marry Mary Burchell, 1972

When Strangers Marry Albert McDonnell, 1999 This study of eighty marriages that ended in separation looks at the couples childhood courtship their married life their unhappiness leading to separation and their lives after they had separated By finding common elements in the experience of Eighteen Treatises from the Mishnah ,1845 A Marriage of Convenience Alexandre Dumas,1899 Alroy. Ixion in Heaven. The infernal marriage, Popanilla Benjamin Disraeli,1890 Popanilla The adventures of Captain Popanilla shipwrecked off the Isle of Fantaisie Originally published in 1828 Law and Custom in Burma and the Burmese Family Maung Maung,2012-12-06 This book conceived in Rangoon nourished and delivered at the Yale Law School attempts to study the customary laws of Burma in the context of the country s legal system Customary laws govern the affairs of the family mainly while codes and precedents designed and developed on the imported British common law system enjoy exclusive control and authority over the remaining legal relationships in society This volume looks at the legal system in outline and the customary law of the Burmese family in some detail The customary laws of other indigenous groups such as the Shans the Kachins the Chins the Kayah the Mon and the Arakanese also need to be studied restated and appraised for though the laws are similar there are shades of differences and in building the Union of Burma it is important to build strongly on the similarities while giving due respect to the differences It is therefore hoped that this volume will launch a series of studies on the customary laws of the peoples of Burma in a large context and with high aim There are many needs for continuing research in the field of customary law One is to discover the customs of the people as they really are not just what they are presumed to be in early legal treatises or in later judicial decisions The Register of Marriages, Christenings and Burials in the Church of Saint Mary, Lewisham, Kent (being Such Portions of the Registers as Were Saved from the Fire of 1830) from 1558 to 1750 Leland Lewis Duncan,1891 The Civil Code of Lower Canada, Together with a Synopsis of Changes in the Law, References to the Reports of the Commissioners, a Concordance with the Code Napoleon and Code de Commerce Québec (Province),Thomas McCord,1880 Probate & Administration Charles Francis Morrell,1882 A selection of leading cases on various branches of the law John William Smith,1896 Jane Eyre,....
