The Forming Of The Communist International:

The First Five Years of the Communist International Leon Trotsky, 2020-09-16 Following the October Revolution of 1917 a revolutionary wave swept across Europe In this period Leon Trotsky along with Lenin was pivotal in setting up the Third Communist International which represented a world party of the working class The International could not be conjured out of thin air Much like the Bolshevik Party it had to be built through struggle against many different tendencies and ideas This book collects all of Trotsky's writings and speeches related to the first five years of the Communist International Highlighting the task he and Lenin faced in trying to educate the young communist parties of Germany France and elsewhere it deals with many problems that the working class movement still comes up against today This includes the question of the United Front the national question the consciousness of the working class and how it changes and much more Today the capitalist system faces the deepest crisis in its history However we are faced with the same problem Trotsky outlined in 1924 there is no mass international organisation of the working class with a clear understanding of the task at hand Therefore this work is not just of historical interest but should be read as a guide to action for all workers and youth seeking a revolutionary way out of the present crisis This edition contains a new introduction by Fred Weston editor of Marxist.com which outlines some of the key debates and decisions as well as an outline of the development of the International in this period Communist Communist International and US Communism, 1919-1929 Jacob Zumoff, 2014-08-21 Since the Cold War most historians have set up an opposition between the American and international aspects of early American Communism This book examines the development of the Communist Party in its first decade from 1919 to 1929 Using the archives of the Communist International this book in contrast to previous studies argues that the International played an important role in the early part of this decade in forcing the party to Americanise Special attention is given to the attempts by the Comintern to orient American Communists on the role of black oppression and to see the struggle for black liberation and the fight for socialism as inextricably linked The later sections of the book provide the most detailed account now available of how the Comintern reflecting the Stalinisation of the Soviet Union intervened in the American party to ensure the Stalinisation of American Communism Founding the Communist International Communist International.
