The Fracture Of Faith Recovering Belief Of The Gospel In A Postmodern World:

The Immediacy of God Douglas Vickers, 2009-05-13 The confessing church in our time treats lightly the doctrinal deposit of its theological inheritance The clamor of competition for the reconstruction of belief systems has too often neglected older and more secure moorings In a postmodern age that countenances individual belief idiosyncrasies and accords them sanctity the answer to the ordinary man's question What is the gospel is often clouded and confused Against doctrinal uncertainties and insecurities The Immediacy of God brings back into prominence a number of foundational issues related to the doctrines of God and salvation of theology and soteriology In doing so it anchors its thought structure in the basic apologetic presupposition that God is and in the fundamental hermeneutical principle of divine covenantal purpose The originality of Vickers argument lies in its proposal of new perspectives on its chosen subject range and as it becomes necessary for the elucidation of biblical belief its critical response to proposals for new theological paradigms The organizing core of the book's argument is its proposition regarding the immediacy of God in his being his knowledge his will and his actions That core proposition spills its influence to aspects of human salvation On such levels questions are raised that strike to the heart of the meaning of the divinely instituted redemptive process Divine actions within that process are understood to be immediate rather than mediate Redemptive actions of God are immediate in the sense that no mediating causes exist between those actions and their effects and outcomes in the human condition

The Cross Douglas Vickers, 2010-04-02 A question has challenged the human conscience for two thousand years How are we to explain the presence of Jesus Christ in this world Or who indeed was Jesus Christ A man like the rest of men Or was he a divine Person Why was it that well practiced soldiers who failed to fulfill their commission to arrest him said Never man spoke like this man The early church confirmed the apostles declaration that Jesus Christ was the eternal Son of God and that he came into the world to fulfill a messianic redemptive assignment Christ Jesus the apostle to the Gentiles explained came into the world to save sinners In The Cross Its Meaning and Message in a Postmodern World Douglas Vickers sees the cross as the watershed of history The divine objectives that the cross addressed bear vitally on the human condition vitiated as that is by the entailment of sin In an age in which postmodernist claims have rejected absolute criteria of truth and validity the Christ of the cross provides the only refuge for those burdened by the search for meaning The Cross explores the way of reconciliation between God and man It affirms the apostolic claim that In Christ are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge

When God Converts a Sinner Douglas Vickers, 2008-08-01 In an age of theological innovation and doctrinal discount the heritage of evangelical Reformed theology is in increasing danger of betrayal Old established understandings of the faith once delivered to the saints are under attack disturbing the peace of the church tarnishing its witness and challenging its purity Against the pressures of newer fashions in thought Douglas Vickers here returns to the seventeenth century confessions of faith and illustrates from successive chapters common to three of those confessions the ways in which and the reasons why traditional beliefs and doctrinal constructions are to be preserved Among questions examined with biblically informed insight are the relation between eternity and time and its significance for the gospel of redemption the meaning and function of saving faith the accomplishment of redemption by the incarnate Christ the significance of his heavenly high priestly office the high doctrine of the Christian believer's union with Christ and the implications these doctrinal realities hold for the Christian life In a discussion of contemporary theologies When God Converts a Sinner examines such innovations as the New Perspective on Paul Federal Vision theology Shepherdism and other attempts to effect a paradigm shift in historically received theology

Healing a Broken World Cynthia D. Moe-Lobeda, 2002-08-08 Moe Lobeda shows how the advent of globalization places a new horizon on the spiritual quest for religious experience Healing a Broken World places spirituality and contemplative experience in relation to today's most pressing problems

The Fracture of Faith Douglas Vickers, 2000 The church is capitulating to a business organizational ethos and to entanglements with cultural and political movements By surrendering its grasp of the biblical evangel it has left the people without clear directives for life and belief Religion Index One, 2005

Resurrection Knowledge W. Stephen Gunter, 1999 In a day when so many people have lost confidence in the historical affirmations of ecumenical Christianity this book is written both for those in the seminary and the church Gunter believes the assumptions of modernism have eroded our ability to believe the gospel affirmation Christ is risen This book tells the story of how we forgot the gospel what attempts have been made in the twentieth century to recover the gospel and how we can recover the gospel for confident belief and proclamation
