meal out at a peri peri restaurant when an American woman named Julia approaches seeking Mma Ramotswe's help. Julia's beloved late grandfather was Botswanan and he instilled in her an abiding love of his homeland. Now years after his passing, Julia has come to visit the land he had spoken of so often and to find her relatives. Unfortunately, her grandfather's stories, while charming and entertaining, were somewhat light on detail. All Julia can remember are a few first names and some descriptions of his village. It's not a lot to go on, but if anyone is well poised to help, it's Mma Ramotswe. Botswana's premier detective. Meanwhile, a second case leads Mma Ramotswe to look for assistance from an unexpected quarter. For the first time, Charlie leads his own investigation at the detective agency, going undercover into a dubious world of mouth-to-mouth, get-together known as the Cool Singles Evening Club, where married men are encouraged to pretend to be single and meet women under false pretenses. Who could be behind such a distasteful venture? Getting to the bottom of this will be a tall order to be sure, but Charlie is eager for the opportunity. As Mma Ramotswe learns more about Julia, she begins to understand that Julia's heartbreak runs deeper than she had initially realized. Together, Mma Ramotswe and Mma Potokwane must find a way to help their client heal and move forward from both her past and her present. Julia had originally come to Botswana seeking family and connection, but in the warm embrace of Mma Ramotswe and Mma Potokwane, what she ends up finding is a home.

Podnieks, 2016-04-29 The definitions of fatherhood have shifted in the twenty-first century as paternal subjectivities, conflicts, and desires have registered in new ways in the contemporary family. This collection investigates these sites of change through various lenses: from popular culture, film, television, blogs, best-selling fiction, and non-fiction, stand-up comedy, routines, advertisements, newspaper articles, parenting guide books, and video games. Treating constructions of the father at the nexus of patriarchy, gender, and post-feminist philosophy, contributors analyze how fatherhood is defined in relation to masculinity and femininity and the shifting structures of the heteronormative nuclear family. Perceptions of the father as the traditional breadwinner and authoritarian, as compared to a more engaged and involved nurturer, are considered via representations of fathers from the US, Canada, Britain, Australia, South Africa, and Sweden. The New York Times Magazine, 2004-05
