The Free Offer Call Of The Gospel:

The Presbyterian Philosopher Douglas J. Douma, 2017-01-24 This is the story of Gordon Clark 1902-85, a respected philosopher and prolific writer who held that Christianity as a logically coherent system is superior to all other philosophies. Clark fought no wars and conquered no kingdoms. Yet he was a leading figure in many theological wars fought for the Kingdom of God. These battles for the minds and souls of men were every bit as crucial as physical wars between nations. In an age of increasing secularization, he put up an intellectual defense of the Christian faith. This faith, he believed, was a system. All of its parts link together a luxury of no other philosophy. His stance shows a Christianity that is in fact intellectual, not relying on appeals to emotion or experience. In propounding this view, he encountered frequent opposition, not from the secular world but from within his own denomination. This biography helps explain why his thought was so profound, why resistance mounted against him, and how his struggles impacted American Presbyterianism. Additionally, this book calls for a reappraisal of Clark's views, which have been maligned by controversy. Understanding and applying his views could significantly fortify Christians combating irrational and non-systematic ideas prevalent in today's churches. Herman

Stebbins, 2020-10-26 Originally written in 1975, Ken Stebbins' Christ Freely Offered is seen as one of the best defenses on the subject of the free offer of the gospel. Tackling both scripture and the historical theological aspects, Stebbins engages with many of the main individuals involved in this subject, including Herman Hoeksema, John Murray, and Ned Stonehouse. This edition has been slightly updated by Stebbins and will help readers come to a firm understanding of this subject, as well as an insight into the decrees of God and the idea of Common Grace. The Magazine of Christian Literature, 1890.
