The Free Zone Jean-Claude Grumberg, 1993 Two major works by the winner of France's 1991 Molière award for Best Playwright

Staging the Holocaust Claude Schumacher, 1998-09-24 To portray the Holocaust one has to create a work of art says Claude Lanzmann the director of Shoah However can the Holocaust be turned into theatre Is it possible to portray on stage events that by their monstrosity defy human comprehension These are the questions addressed by the playwrights and the scholars featured in this book Their essays present and analyse plays performed in Israel America France Italy Poland and of course Germany The style of presentation ranges from docudramas to avant garde performances from realistic impersonation of historical figures to provocative and nightmarish spectacles The book is illustrated with original production photographs and some rare drawings and documents it also contains an important descriptive bibliography of more than two hundred Holocaust plays

Staging History from the Shoah to Palestine Inez Hedges, 2021-09-28 This book is a contribution to the emerging field of research based performance which seeks to gain a wider audience for issues that are crucial to our understanding of history and to informing our future actions The book examines the role of theater in portraying the Shoah in France the French Resistance and the Israeli Palestinian conflict Each of the three chapters consists of an original dramatic work by the author and an accompanying critical essay

Theater, War, and Memory in Crisis John Ireland, 2025-03-11 Theater War and Memory in Crisis explores how French and Algerian dramatists have engaged with two traumatic events that continue to haunt France the German occupation and Vichy government from 1940 to 1944 and the Algerian War from 1954 to 1962 John Ireland's investigation is guided by one central question can theater take on issues of violence war trauma and conflicted memory in a fundamentally different way from archival forms of culture such as memoirs narrative fiction and film Throughout the twentieth century French cultural anthropologists classicists and social scientists repeatedly revisited links between archaic religious ritual the practice of sacrifice and Greek tragedy as attempts to understand regulate and mitigate the violence of human conflict and war Ireland argues that contemporary French playwrights dealing with war trauma and contested memory were influenced by aspects of this research that foregrounded the core virtues of oral culture presence and the present the here and now that also regulate theatrical performance That connection to the present encouraged dramatists and performance artists to make live historiographical contributions to reverberating unresolved history but also revived perennial therapeutic values of oral culture that evolved in ancient Greece Theater War and Memory in Crisis brings original readings of canonical authors like Jean Paul Sartre Jean Genet Bernard Marie Kolt's and Kateb Yacine into dialogue with non canonical dramatists such as Armand Gatti Liliane Atlan and Noureddine Aba

Stages of Annihilation Edward R. Isser, 1997 The book identifies emerging patterns and correlations among dramatic texts written about the Holocaust over the past fifty years Isser proposes a framework for assessing and adjudicating these plays that is rational and nonprescriptive He also emphasizes the centrality of documentation and the
