The French Generation Of 1820:

The French Generation of 1820 Alan Barrie Spitzer, 2014-07-14 Alan Spitzer approaches the history of the French Restoration by examining the experience of a particular age group born between 1792 and 1803 the generation of 1820 A predominantly male middle class educated minority of this group was perceived as representing all that was most promising and specifically youthful in the period Their response to the pressures of transition was expressed in the fractious behavior of the youth of the schools and in voluntary associations masonic lodges conspiratorial cells and influential journals which depended on a dense network of personal relationships Professor Spitzer portrays these connections in a set of sociograms using new techniques for the visual representation of social networks Originally published in 1987 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Formation of the Parisian Bourgeoisie, 1690-1830 David Garrioch, 1996 Despite their importance during the French Revolution the Paris middle classes are little known This book focuses on the family organization and the political role of the Paris commercial middle classes using as a case study the Faubourg St Marcel and particularly the parish of St M dard David Garrioch argues that in the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries the commercial middle classes were steadfastly local in their family ties and outlook He shows too that they took independent political action in defense of their local position This gradually changed during the eighteenth century and the Revolution greatly accelerated the process of integration at the same time broadening the composition of what may now be termed the Parisian bourgeoisie Central to Garrioch's argument is the idea that family politics and power are intimately connected He shows the centrality of kinship to local politics in the first half of the eighteenth century and the way new family structures were related to changes in the nature of politics even before the Revolution Among the many important issues considered are birth control the role of women the importance of lineage the spatial limits of middle class lives and the language and secularization of politics

Mme de Staël and Political Liberalism in France Chinatsu Takeda, 2018-07-31 This book sheds light on the unique aspects of communal liberalism in Mme de Staël's writings and considers her contribution to nineteenth century French liberal political thought Focusing notably on the Considérations sur les principaux événements de la Révolution française it examines the originality of Staël's liberal philosophy Rather than contrasting liberalism with either multiculturalism or republicanism the book argues that Staël's communal liberalism challenges the conventions of nineteenth century political thought notably through her assertion of the need to institutionalize an organic intermediary connecting the two spheres an idea later advanced by thinkers such as Jürgen Habermas Offering a critical reappraisal of Staël's multifaceted work this book assesses the political impact of her work arguing that the political influence of the Consid rations permeates the liberal historiography of the French Revolution up to the present day The French Atlantic Triangle Christopher L. Miller,2008-01-11 A study of representations of the French Atlantic slave trade in the history literature and film of France and its former colonies in Africa and the Caribbean The Measure of Merit John Carson,2007 Publisher description A Social History of France in the 19th Century Christophe Charle,1994-12-14 Intended for history students and general readers this book introduces and analyzes the dynamics and relationships of the various social groups or classes of 19th century France the nobility bourgeoisie middle class and petty bourgeoisie Histoire Sociale ,1988 A History of French Painting from Its Earliest to Its Latest Practice Clara Cornelia Harrison Stranahan,1899 Generations in Twentieth-Century Europe Stephen Lovell,2007-09-26 The concept of generation is ubiquitous in common parlance and public discourse it is used to explain family relationships consumer preferences political change and much else besides But how can generation be used by historians Do generations really exist or are they constructed and manipulated by social and cultural elites In pursuit of answers to these questions this book ranges from World War I to the baby boomers and from Spain to the Soviet Union Suicide in French Thought from Montesquieu to Cioran Zilla Gabrielle Cahn,1998 Suicide stems in large part from the human condition and as such is not a problem that can be solved Former draconian and punitive laws against it have in the main been eliminated but it remains a stigma and a heartache In the twentieth century suicide has become a problem for sociologists psychiatrists and social policymakers to solve In past centuries however suicide was a subject most fit for philosophers theologians writers and as the nineteenth century progressed physicians What establishes itself clearly throughout is that social attitudes and public policies toward suicide as toward other important human issues mirror the needs and peculiar circumstances of a culture Yet sanctions against suicide except in highly prescribed instances transcend cultural specificity To the question when if ever is suicide permissible Western peoples and institutions both secular and religious reply never Duty to others to God to society or to all of these virtually always overrides personal desire or reasons to commit suicide A History of the Modern World: Since 1815 Robert Roswell Palmer,Joel Colton,1992 Considers the history of the making of the modern world between 1789 and the present day It places Europe and the European civilization in its international setting and considers individual nations from the perspective of their points of contact with a larger civilization A History of the Modern World Robert Roswell Palmer,Joel Colton,1992
