The Galactic Arena Christopher Dane, 1981

The Fair and Responsible Use of Space Wolfgang

Rathgeber, Kai-Uwe Schrogl, Ray A. Williamson, 2011-02-03 As space applications become central to modern interaction more and more entities are becoming involved in space activities Consequently strategies to establish the coordinated ethically justifiable and sustainable conduct of space activities have to be found Such an endeavour requires addressing current questions regarding the use of space dealing with fair rules in orbit and discussing the way towards achieving truly global engagement on space security issues The book outlines the current situation and identifies key challenges from the policy perspective Taking this one step further it also formulates principles and recommendations for global action Nineteen eminent personalities from the space sector have united for this project which is based on a conference organised at the European Space Policy Institute ESPI in November 2008 in Vienna

Beyond Horizons David N. Spires, 2007

Space Fostering African Societies Annette Froehlich, 2021-02-22 This peer reviewed book provides detailed insights into how space and its applications are and can be used to support the development of the full range and diversity of African societies as encapsulated in the African Union's Agenda 2063 Following on from Part 1 which was highly acclaimed by the space community it focuses on the role of space in supporting the UN Sustainable Development Goals in Africa but covers an even more extensive array of relevant and timely topics addressing all facets of African development It demonstrates that while there have been significant achievements in recent years in terms of economic and social development which have lifted many of Africa's people out of poverty there is still a great deal that needs to be done to fulfill the basic needs of Africa's citizens and afford them the dignity they deserve To this end space is already being employed in diverse fields of human endeavor to serve Africa's goals for its future but there is much room for further incorporation of space systems and data Providing a comprehensive overview of the role space is playing in helping Africa achieve its developmental aspirations the book will appeal to both students and professionals in fields such as space studies international relations governance and social and rural development

Space Supporting Africa Annette Froehlich, André Siebrits, 2019-05-30 In this book the background and context of Africa's political and socio-economic landscape is presented and unpacked through a primary needs approach which focuses on climate biodiversity health water education and space related capacity building African theoretical contributions from the International Relations field are discussed and Africa's new Space Policy and Strategy along with debates around the establishment of an African Space Agency are explored The African International Space Ecosystem is then analyzed including its dimensions of intra-African space relations and initiatives African participation in COPUOS and international space activities agreements and initiatives in Africa The final part is dedicated to the national space infrastructure and activities of African states

Asian Space Race: Rhetoric or Reality? Ajey Lele, 2012-10-21 This book explores the character and contours of the Asian Space Powers At present Asian states like China Japan and India are found investing in space technologies with analogous social and scientific and probably with divergent military intents Other Asian states like Israel South Korea and Malaysia are also making investments in the space arena States like Iran and North Korea are faulted for using space launches as a demonstrative tool to achieve strategic objectives This work examines this entire maze of activities to unearth where these states are making these investments to accomplish their state specific goal or are they also trying to surpass each other by engaging in competition Explaining why and how these states are making investments towards achieving their socio economic and strategic mandate this book infers that the possibility of Asian Space Race exists but is presently fairly diminutive

The Galaxy William Conant Church,1874 Europe in the Global Space Economy Patrizia Caraveo,Clelia Iacomino,2023-08-28 This book analyzes the policies and space economy programs of major space faring nations and explores whether the present institutional set up in Europe is adequate to address the challenges At the core of the discussion are the relative roles of governments and markets in a highly dynamic panorama that involves advancements in science modifications in technology and organization and the introduction of new rules of behavior After a close examination of the history of development of the space economy and the shift from the centralized model to deregulation and the opening up of space activities to commercial companies a wide ranging overview of global space governance is provided National and regional perspectives are discussed and the current role of commercial actors in the global space system is elucidated The various challenges faced by Europe are then examined including the threat posed by institutional and market fragmentation to the emergence of European companies able to compete with companies of nations such as the USA The final part of the book analyzes proposals for reforming of the space system in Europe and offers a vision for future European space policy
