Archaeological Survey in the Lower Mississippi Alluvial Valley, 1940-1947 Philip Phillips, James A. Ford, James B. Griffin, 2003-10-08 Documents prehistoric human occupation along the lower reaches of the Mississippi River A Dan Josselyn Memorial Publication The Lower Mississippi Survey was initiated in 1939 as a joint undertaking of three institutions the School of Geology at Louisiana State University the Museum of Anthropology at the University of Michigan and the Peabody Museum at Harvard Fieldwork began in 1940 but was halted during the war years When fieldwork resumed in 1946 James Ford had joined the American Museum of Natural History which assumed co sponsorship from LSU The purpose of the Lower Mississippi Survey LMS a term used to identify both the fieldwork and the resultant volume was to investigate the northern two thirds of the alluvial valley of the lower Mississippi River roughly from the mouth of the Ohio River to Vicksburg This area covers about 350 miles and had been long regarded as one of the principal hot spots in eastern North American archaeology Phillips Ford and Griffin surveyed over 12 000 square miles identified 382 archaeological sites and analyzed over 350 000 potsherds in order to define ceramic typologies and establish a number of cultural periods The commitment of these scholars to developing a coherent understanding of the archaeology of the area as well as their mutual respect for one another enabled the publication of what is now commonly considered the bible of southeastern archaeology Originally published in 1951 as volume 25 of the Papers of the Peabody Museum of American Archaeology and Ethnology this work has been long out of print Because Stephen Williams served for 35 years as director of the LMS at Harvard succeeding Phillips and was closely associated with the authors during their lifetimes his new introduction offers a broad overview of the work s influence and value placing it in a contemporary context

The Great Conspiracy Logan, 1885      Operation Pretense James R. Crockett, 2010-04-08 During the 1980s fifty seven of Mississippi s 410 county supervisors from twenty six of the state s eighty two counties were charged with corruption The FBI s ploy to catch the criminals was code named Operation Pretense Ingenious undercover investigation exposed the supervisors wide scaled subterfuge in purchasing goods and services Because supervisors themselves controlled and monitored the purchasing system they could supply sham documentation and spurious invoices Operation Pretense was devised in response to the complaint of a disgruntled company owner a Pentecostal preacher who balked at adding a required ten percent kickback to his bid Detailing the intricate story this book gives an account of the FBI s stratagem of creating a decoy company that ingratiated itself throughout the supervisors fiefdoms and brought about a jolting expos sweeping repercussions and a crusade for reform The case was so notable that CBS s Mike Wallace came to Mississippi to cast the 60 Minutes spotlight on this astonishing sting and on the humiliated public servants it exposed to public shame The conditions that gave rise to such pervasive malfeasance the major players on both sides the mortifying indictments and the push to finish the clean up are all discussed here In the wake of Operation Pretense were ruined careers a spirit of watchdog reform and an overhauled purchasing system bared to public sunshine However this cautioning book reveals a system that remains far from perfect This narrative report on the largest public corruption scandal in Mississippi history serves as a reminder of the conditions that allow such crime to flourish
