Sleepyhead Tales:

The Sleepyhead's Bedside Companion Sean Coughlan, 2010-01-26 This is a quirky amusing information packed book for all lovers of sleep. It's a celebration of nature's greatest free gift the perfect companion for the bedside table. It's the book to curl up with before falling asleep. It looks at the history culture folklore language and science of sleep. Did you know that the siesta was once a British tradition? Why do we say sleep like a top? Does counting sheep work? What are the very best sleeps? Who invented pyjamas? If dogs sleep so much why are they always yawning? What are the best films about sleep? Do today's children have less sleep than Edwardian children? Does booze help or hinder sleep? Not only is sleep a great natural pleasure it's also essential to good health. The book examines how a lack of sleep is increasingly seen as a health risk. Sleep is also the place of dreams and nightmares. Why are so many dreams the same and what are the archetypal recurring dreams? What is the origin of the word nightmare? And what do Bugs Bunny the surrealists and Freud have to do with dreaming? Sleep is there to be enjoyed. It's not worth getting into bed for anything else.

Other Stuff for Kids of All Ages Judy Wolfman, 2019-01-30 Children of all ages enjoy hearing a story read to them sometimes the same one over and over. Reading aloud is more than reading words. It involves some simple theatrical skills by using your voice to sound like a character in the story. This makes the story come alive and is more interesting to the child. The stories in this book are appropriate for all ages from preschool through adulthood. Some of the stories are funny or silly, some may touch a child's heart and some provide information a child may not know. But all of the stories are enjoyable. There may be times when reading a story is not possible like while driving a car or walking through a store. That's when the story can be told using your own creative adaptations. Whether you read or tell a story make it a fun time for you both. Enjoy the stories.
