The Resurrection of Jesus Dale C. Allison, Jr., 2021-03-11 The earliest traditions around the narrative of Jesus resurrection are considered in this landmark work by Dale C Allison Jr drawing together the fruits of his decades of research into this issue at the very core of Christian identity Allison returns to the ancient sources and earliest traditions charting them alongside the development of faith in the resurrection in the early church and throughout Christian history Beginning with historical critical methodology that examines the empty tomb narratives and early confessions Allison moves on to consider the resurrection in parallel with other traditions and stories including Tibetan accounts of saintly figures being assumed into the light in the chapter Rainbow Body Finally Allison considers what might be said by way of results or conclusions on the topic of resurrection offering perspectives from both apologetic and sceptical viewpoints In his final section of modest results he considers scholarly approaches to the resurrection in light of human experience adding fresh nuance to a debate that has often been characterised in overly simplistic terms of it happened or it didn't      Cistercian

Studies Quarterly, 1997      The Sculptural Environment of the Roman Near East Yaron Z. Eliav, Elise A. Friedland, Sharon Herbert, 2008 Public sculptures were the mass media of the Roman world They populated urban centers throughout the empire serving as a plastic language that communicated political religious and social messages This book brings together twenty eight experts who otherwise rarely convene text based scholars of the Greco Roman Jewish and Christian realms from the fields of classics history and religion and specialists in the artistic traditions of Greece and Rome as well as art historians and archaeologists Utilizing the full spectrum of ancient sources the book examines the multiple at times even contradictory meanings and functions that statues served within the complex world of the Roman Near East Moreover it situates the discussion of sculpture in the broader context of antiquity in order to reevaluate long held scholarly consensus on such ideas as the essence of Hellenism the culture that emerged from the encounter of Greco Romans with the Near East and the everlasting conflict among paganism Christianity and Judaism      Parole de l'Orient ,2005      In Speechless Ecstasy ,2003      Sacred Images and Sacred Power in Byzantium Gary Vikan,2003 In these studies Gary Vikan has opened new perspectives on the daily life and material culture of Late Antiquity more specifically on icons and relics and on objects revealing of the world of pilgrimage the early cult of saints and marriage He contextualizes these familiar categories of object in the patterns of belief and ritual extracted from contemporary texts and the objects themselves in order to understand their meaning within the everyday lives of those by whom and for whom they were made The studies give a nuanced delineation of the inherently ambiguous boundary between conventional religion and magic noting repeatedly those instances wherein the two are invoked in the same breath and by way of the same art object toward the same end From this historically constructed matrix of art belief and ritual the author derives an anthropologically defined paradigm of charisma and pilgrimage applied in one essay as an intriguing parallel to deconstructing the world of a contemporary secular saint Elvis Presley      A History of Celibacy Elizabeth Abbott,1999 Celibacy is a worldwide practice that is often adopted rarely discussed Now in Elizabeth Abbott s fascinating and wide ranging history it is examined in all its various forms shaping religious lives conditioning athletes and shamans surfacing in classical poetry and camp literature resonating in the voices of castrati and permeating ancient mythology Found in every society of the past practiced by both the anonymous and the legendary St Catherine Joan of Arc Leonardo da Vinci Elizabeth I Gandhi celibacy has as many stories as adherents and Abbott weaves them into a provocative seamless tapestry that brings history alive      The Hermit Monks of Grandmont Carole Hutchison,1989 A study of the history and lifestyle of the hermit monks of Grandmont before the French Revolution this book also features illustrations of their architecture      In Speechless Ecstasy Serafim Seppälä,2003 According to the hypothesis underlying this study Syriac and Sufi texts refer repeatedly to and deal with something mystical which is absolutely non linguistic in nature yet is expressed linguistically under the conditions and restrictions of natural language this something is an important factor constituting the character of the discourse but it does not submit to being an object of research The purpose of this study is to undertake a systematic survey of the different constituents of ecstatic readings in Syriac ascetic literature including the process of expression and interpretation and manifestation as far as possible and to present this together with a corresponding analysis of classical Sufism as it is manifested in its authoritative literature and finally to make concluding remarks concerning common features and differences between traditions      Rome and Constantinople Raymond Van Dam,2010 Imperial Rome and Christian Constantinople were both astonishingly large cities with over sized appetites that served as potent symbols of the Roman Empire and its rulers Esteemed historian Raymond Van Dam draws upon a wide array of evidence to reveal a deep interdependence on imperial ideology and economy as he elucidates the parallel workaday realities and lofty images in their stories Tracing the arc of empire from the Rome of Augustus to Justinian's Constantinople he masterfully shows how the changing political structures ideologies and historical narratives of Old and New Rome always remained rooted in the bedrock of the ancient Mediterranean's economic and demographic realities The transformations in the Late Roman Empire brought about by the rise of the military and the church required a rewriting of the master narrative of history and signaled changes in economic systems Just as Old Rome had provided a stage set for the performance of Republican emperorship New Rome was configured for the celebration of Christian rule As it came to pass a city with too much history was outshone by a city with no history Provided with the urban amenities and an imagined history appropriate to its elevated status Constantinople could thus resonate as the new imperial capital while Rome on the other hand was reinvented as the papal city

Fiema, Sylvain Janniard, 2007 This book includes papers from a colloquium held at Potenza Acerenza and Matera Italy May 2005 entitled The Late Roman Army in the Near East from Diocletian to the Arab Conquest

The Image of God in the Antiochene Tradition Frederick G. McLeod, 1999 This work presents the Antiochene understandings of how humans are the image of God The author begins with an analysis of the Antiochenes's literal and historical method of interpreting scripture and then traces how they applied their hermeneutical principles to the passages regarding image

The Life of Isaac of Alexandria ; & The Martyrdom of Saint Macrobius Mena, 1988

Desire and Denial in Byzantium Liz James, 1999 Desire sex love and the erotic appear incongruous in a Byzantine context These papers examine the social and religious aspects of Byzantine society with regard to restraint and the lack of it amongst the people of Byzantium

A Cloud of Witnesses David N. Bell, 1989 First published in 1989 A Cloud of Witnesses has been completely rewritten to incorporate a multitude of minor amendments and a considerable amount of additional information Like the first edition it is intended as an introduction to the formative first five hundred years of the Christian theological tradition In these pages the opinions and personalities of the Fathers of the Church that emerge are presented against the intellectual social and political world of their times but since the book is only an introduction the author presents the development of Christian doctrine in a rather more logical and cohesive manner than was the case in reality The Christian Librarian, 1991
