Lords of Creation Frederick Lewis Allen, 2007 The lords of creation men we call R. J. S., 1838 Lords of Creation, 1883 The Lord of History Jean Daniélou, 1958 Maintains that history makes sense only when understood as the history of salvation Shows how the very possibility of history as distinct from chronicle arises from the revealed knowledge of God s creative work Christ as God entering history becomes its centre and both judges and illumines it with consequences for all past and present philosophies With Christ as norm the author examines Marxism logical positivism existentialism and other secular interpretations of history and distinguishes between their valid and false concepts Then after searching exposition of the Christian theology of history in which God s presence is continuous he concludes with a section explaining how the Christian in a sense not only experiences history but makes it More than an answer for the anxious and a refutation of those who see Christianity simply as one historical stream among many this book is a commanding invitation for all mankind to take part in history to participate individually and collectively in the work of salvation
