The Myth of the Lost Paradise in the Novels of Jacques Poulin Paul Socken, 1993 Socken analyzes the shape and direction of Poulin's creation narratives as they evolve in the novels and demonstrates their presence from the earliest quasi political Un cheval pour mon royaume to the highly introspective Le Vieux Chagrin The novels move from an outer directed concept of the lost paradise as a state to be attained beyond the self to a sense of the lost paradise as the kingdom within achievable first on the individual level as self knowledge and only afterwards on the social level Poulin introduces the theme of the soul and his personal concept of it as the soul for him is proof of the inner life that embodies the qualities of tranquility and tenderness associated with the lost paradise Lost paradise literature is universal and timeless Poulin's portrayal is placed in historical context so that his contribution to the genre can be fully appreciated Referring to studies by such critics as Mircea Eliade Northrop Frye Jerome S Bruner and Jack J Le Grand Meaulnes, Or, The Lost Domain ; And, Miracles Alain-Fournier, 1999 Meaulnes: the Lost

The Recurrent Green Universe of John Fowles Thomas M. Wilson, 2006-01-01 Ecocriticism is the emerging academic field which explores nature writing and ecological themes in all literature Thomas M Wilson's book is the first to consider the work of one of the most critically acclaimed and generally popular post war English writers from an ecocritical perspective Fowles is best known as a novelist and author of such works as The Magus The French Lieutenant's Woman and Daniel Martin Going beyond the fiction this book also examines the many profound reflections on the natural world found in his essays poems and his recently published Journals John Fowles writings have cast light on the ways we perceive the natural world from curious scientific observer to Wordsworthian lover of natural places as well as many other important and at this time crucial themes This volume will be of interest to critics and readers of contemporary fiction but most of all to anyone curious about their place in the recurrent green universe that is our earth John Fowles's Fiction and the Poetics of Postmodernism Mahmoud Salami,1992 Salami presents for instance a critique of the self conscious narrative of the diary form in The Collector the intertextual relations of the multiplicity of voices the problems of subjectivity the reader's position the politics of seduction ideology and history in The Magus and The French Lieutenant's Woman The book also analyzes the ways in which Fowles uses and abuses the short story genre in which enigmas remain enigmatic and the author disappears to leave the characters free to construct their own texts Salami centers for example on A Maggot which embodies the postmodernist technique of dialogical narrative the problem of narrativization of history and the explicitly political critique of both past and present in terms of social and religious dissent These political questions are also echoed in Fowles's nonfictional book The Aristos in which he strongly rejects the totalization of narratives and the materialization of society

The Lost Domain ... Translated ... by Frank Davison, Etc Henri Alain FOURNIER, Frank Davison,1959 Landscapes of Abandonment Roger A. Salerno,2012-02-01 Using social theory and cultural analysis Roger A Salerno explores the relationship of abandonment to the construction of contemporary capitalistic cultures Beginning with an array of narratives on the emergence of capitalism in the West and its undermining of traditional social institutions and structures he provides an overview of both the definition of and reactions to abandonment analyzing its historical social and psychological dimensions The author contends that abandonment anxiety and feelings of estrangement not only have deep psychological roots but also important social causes and cultural manifestations such as a quest for security or a hunger for commodities Salerno surveys important contributions of writers artists philosophers and social scientists and how their work expresses this sense of modern abandonment He also examines how and why this phenomenon has become a central motif in renderings of community the environment and the process of globalization and presents a richer understanding of our modern social condition Francis Parkman's Works Francis Parkman,1898 The Conspiracy of Pontiac Francis Parkman,1898 The Works of Francis Parkman: The Conspiracy of Pontiac and the Indian war after the conquest of Canada Francis Parkman,1898 Introductory Francis Parkman,1898
