Anchors, Flint Mitchell, 1991 AB Bookman's Weekly, 1999 Books in Print, 1991 Children's Books in Print, 1993 The Education of Alice M. Jordan Gale Eaton, 2014-07-10 A biography of Alice M. Jordan who headed children's work at the Boston Public Library BPL from 1902 to 1940 is long overdue. Daughter of a Maine sea captain and a Massachusetts schoolteacher she was one of the pioneering generation of children's librarians women who entered the field when salaries were low progressive ideals high academic credentials spotty and the drive to professionalization was revolutionizing librarianship and education. Modest and unassuming high school graduate Jordan worked effectively to improve educational opportunities for children and their librarians alike. She taught at the Simmons Library School helped create the BPL Training School founded the New England Round Table of Children's Librarians NERTCL and mentored Bertha Mahony Miller founder of The Horn Book Magazine. She had a national reputation among children's book editors and librarians for her critical acumen clear writing and astute advice. Locally she networked tirelessly with Boston educators negotiated the placement of qualified children's librarians in all BPL branches and trained a generation of gifted youth workers all from a desk in the middle of a busy children's room. She left a legacy of high standards for children's reading storytelling and reference services. This biography draws on archival materials including Jordan's correspondence with poet Louise Imogen Guiney and Horn Book editor Miller BPL memos and reports and 1979 interviews with Jordan trainees. I have shown her life and achievement in the context of social history from late nineteenth century women's economic opportunities to early twentieth century developments in librarianship especially at the BPL. Each chapter has a brief list of milestones in Jordan and U.S. history.

The DVD-laser Disc Newsletter, 2004 American Book Publishing Record, 2005 Richard Halliburton and the Voyage of the Sea Dragon Gerald Max, 2023-08-18 Richard Halliburton 1900-1939 considered the world's first celebrity travel writer swam the length of the Panama Canal recreated Ulysses' voyages in the Mediterranean crossed the Alps on an elephant flew around the world in a biplane and descended into the Mayan Well of Death all the while chronicling his own adventures. Several books treat his life and travels yet no book has addressed in detail Halliburton's most ambitious expedition an attempt to sail across the Pacific Ocean in a Chinese junk. Set against the backdrop of a China devastated by invading Japanese armies and the storm clouds of world war gathering in Europe Halliburton and a crew of fourteen set out to build and sail the Sea Dragon a junk or ancient sailing ship from Hong Kong to San Francisco for the Golden Gate International Exposition After battling through crew conflicts and frequent delays the Sea Dragon set sail on March 4 1939 Three weeks after embarking the ship encountered a typhoon and disappeared without a trace Richly enhanced with historic photographs Richard Halliburton and the Voyage of the Sea Dragon follows the dramatic arc of this ill fated expedition in fine detail Gerry Max artfully unpacks the tensions between Halliburton and his captain John Wenlock Welch owing much to Welch's homophobia and Halliburton's unconcealed homosexuality And while Max naturally explores the trials and tribulations of preparing constructing and finally launching the Sea Dragon he also punctuates the story with the invasion of China by the Japanese as Halliburton and his letters home reveal an excellent wartime reporter Max mines these documents many of which have only recently come to light as well as additional letters from Halliburton and his crew to family and friends photographs films and tape recordings to paint an intricate portrait of Halliburton's final expedition from inception to tragic end

Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Convair B-36 Peacemaker Graham M Simons, 2024-07-25 The story of the Consolidated B 36 is unique in American aviation history The aircraft was an interesting blend of concepts proven during the Second World War combined with budding 1950s high tech systems The program survived near cancellation on six separate occasions during an extremely protracted development process It was also the symbol of a bitter inter service rivalry between the newly formed US Air Force and the well established US Navy over which of which of the two organizations would control the delivery of atomic weapons during the early years of the Cold War Entering service in 1948 the B 36 was a remarkable design It was the largest mass produced piston engine aircraft ever built having the longest wingspan of any combat aircraft in history Importantly in terms of the developing Cold War at least the B 36 was the first bomber capable of delivering any of the weapons in America s nuclear arsenal without modification To achieve this part of its role the Peacemaker had an operational range of 10 000 miles being capable of intercontinental flight without refueling It is difficult to imagine a modern aircraft remaining airborne for two days without refueling but such missions were relatively routine for the B 36 crews while there were at the time of its service questions around its flight speed the Peacemaker flew so high that this was considered of little concern few fighters of its era could reach the same altitudes and operational surface to air missiles were still in the future The B 36 despite its seemingly conventional appearance pushed the state of the art technology further than any other aircraft of its era Its sheer size brought with it structural challenges while its high altitude capabilities led to engine cooling and associated problems However all of these were finally overcome and the B 36 served well as the first Big Stick of the Cold War Writing with Scissors Ellen Gruber Garvey,2012-11-29 Featuring over 50 rare and hard to find illustrations Writing with Scissors presents a fascinating cultural history of scrapbooks in America
