Juggernaut: Trucking to Saudi Arabia Robert Hutchison, 2014-03-01

In 1986, professional writer Robert Hutchison became a passenger on a 10 000-mile trip through fourteen countries in a Scania 111. He was sampling the life of the long-haul trucker. The truckers' world was one of long days and nights on the road, away from their families, hair-raising tales of accidents and the extreme danger created by murderous driving. He grew to understand why truckers put up with the life not just for the money and the excitement but also for their pride in coping whatever the circumstances and for camaraderie. There was too the beauty of mountains and lakesides and the strangeness of the desert. Robert's trip with Graham Davies of Whittle International took him through Cold War Europe to Turkey and then through Iraq during the Iran-Iraq conflict, with twenty-mile border queues and frequent police shakedowns. Finally, they delivered their cargo of machinery and ovens for making plastic pipes to Al Khobar in Saudi Arabia before heading home after 31 days on the road. This journey was undertaken when the golden age of transport from Europe to the Gulf was coming to an end. Robert's accurate record, first published in 1987, is full of interest, drama and humour, telling the story of a remarkable breed of men.
