Unearthly Beauty Magdalen Smith, 2017-08-17 Saints are people of unearthly beauty who show us a deep understanding of the fluid nature of divine grace. This warm hearted book is for those of us who enter Advent longing for spiritual sustenance to balance the worldly charms of the Christmas season. Jesus' arrival in poverty and vulnerability provoked feelings of unease as well as expectation and hope. How will we keep the faith as Christians called to live distinctively in an age of anxiety? Magdalen Smith believes we can be inspired by people from the past those whose names are familiar or less so whom the Church calls saints. In these wide ranging devotions full of contemporary stories and enjoyable cultural allusions she introduces 24 characters who manifest a mysterious dynamic and enable us to glimpse holiness in a new way. With heartfelt honesty clarity and humanity Magdalen Smith challenges the Church to see the journey ahead with new eyes. This book is a timely prophetic call to be refreshed by our inheritance in ways that renew integrity and hope. Like Steel Angels it draws on the author's own experience as a Christian priest and offers illustrations from the world of visual arts film and contemporary culture. It includes some biblical examples and connects present day yearnings and wrestling as a person who wants to pray better with those of the mystics and holy people from the Christian past. It is about reclaiming and transforming our inner spaces so that we have a renewed and hopeful approach to life and ministry. Each chapter has a short sharp contemporary title with a further subtitle to unpack the content and ends with ideas for both individuals and leaders on how to put the concept under discussion into practice Library of the World's Best Literature, Ancient and Modern--Index-guide to Library of the World's Best Literature ...
