Analyzing Literature-to-Film Adaptations Mary H. Snyder, 2011-01-20 The majority of scholarly treatments for film adaptation are put forth by experts on film and film analysis thus with the focus being on film Analyzing Literature to Film Adaptations looks at film adaptation from a fresh perspective that of writer or creator of literary fiction In her book Snyder explores both literature and film as separate entities detailing the analytical process of interpreting novels and short stories as well as films She then introduces a means to analyzing literature to film adaptations drawing from the concept of intertextual comparison Snyder writes not only from the perspective of a fiction writer but also as an instructor of writing literature and film adaptation She employs the use of specific film adaptations Frankenstein Children of Men Away from Her to show the analytical process put into practice Her approach to film adaptation is designed for students just beginning their academic journey but also for those students well on their way The book also is written for high school and college instructors who teach film adaptations in the classroom

Science V. Story Emma Frances Bloomfield, 2024-02-27 Uncovering common threads across types of science skepticism to show why these controversial narratives stick and how we can more effectively counter them through storytelling Science v Story analyzes four scientific controversies climate change evolution vaccination and COVID 19 through the lens of storytelling Instead of viewing stories as adversaries to scientific practices Emma Frances Bloomfield demonstrates how storytelling is integral to science communication Drawing from narrative theory and rhetorical studies Science v Story examines scientific stories and rival stories including disingenuous rival stories that undermine scientific conclusions and productive rival stories that work to make science more inclusive Science v Story offers two tools to evaluate and build stories narrative webs and narrative constellations These visual mapping tools chart the features of a story i e characters action sequence scope storyteller and content to locate opportunities for audience engagement Bloomfield ultimately argues that we can strengthen science communication by incorporating storytelling in critical ways that are attentive to audience and context

Philosophy of Comics Sam Cowling, Wesley Cray, 2022-05-19 What exactly are comics Can they be art literature or even pornography How should we understand the characters stories and genres that shape them Thinking about comics raises a bewildering range of questions about representation narrative and value Philosophy of Comics is an introduction to these philosophical questions In exploring the history and variety of the comics medium Sam Cowling and Wesley D Cray chart a path through the emerging field of the philosophy of comics Drawing from a diverse range of forms and genres and informed by case studies of classic comics such as Watchmen Tales from the Crypt and Fun Home Cowling and Cray explore ethical aesthetic and ontological puzzles including What does it take to create or destroy a fictional character like Superman Can all comics be adapted into films or are some comics impossible to adapt Is there really a genre of superhero comics When are comics obscene pornographic and why does it matter At a time of rapidly growing interest in graphic storytelling this is an ideal introduction to the philosophy of comics and some of its most central and puzzling questions      Good Guys and Bad Guys Joe Nocera,2008-05-29 The greatest columns and profiles by the bestselling coauthor of All the Devils Are Here What s it like to be a top tobacco executive when your kid asks you about smoking How did a young liberal arts major become the hottest tech stock analyst of the 90s and why did he self destruct How did one family s dysfunction change the media landscape Some people think business journalism is all about balance sheets income statements and earnings per share But if you want to answer the really interesting questions about heroes and hucksters visionaries and madmen and other larger than life characters you need a reporter like Joe Nocera For more than twenty five years Nocera has shed new light on the giants of the business world Warren Buffett T Boone Pickens Bob Nardelli as well as on the less famous but equally fascinating He builds stories around their motivations personalities and deepest characters And instead of just pigeonholing them as good guys or bad guys he explores the gray areas in between      FIDELITY SUSAN.
