The Little Review:

The Little Review Margaret C. Anderson, Ezra Pound, 1967 The Little Magazines Ian Hamilton, 2012-01-19 There have been large magazines with tiny circulations and there have been diminutive sheets which have reached thousands of readers But all little magazines have been small in one or another of these ways and usually in both And yet most of them have had arrestingly large scale ambitions From Ian Hamilton 1938 2001 himself the founder of the Review and New Review comes this matchless survey first published in 1976 of the literary magazine from 1912 1950 concentrating on those periodicals that enjoyed dominant editorial personalities the likes of Pound Eliot Cyril Connolly and which ultimately proved central to their cultural epoch Our one consolation for Ian Hamilton s early death is that his work seems to have lived on with undiminished force He helped to shape our generation and at this rate may well do the same for the next as well Clive James

The New Joyce Studies Catherine Flynn, 2022-09-08 The New Joyce Studies indicates the variety and energy of research on James Joyce since the year 2000 Essays examine Joyce s works and their reception in the light of a larger set of concerns a diverse international terrain of scholarly modes and methodologies an imperilled environment and crises of racial justice to name just a few This is a Joyce studies that dissolves early visions of Joyce as a sui generis genius by reconstructing his indebtedness to specific literary communities It models ways of integrating masses of compositional and publication details with literary and historical events It develops hybrid critical approaches from posthuman medical and queer methodologies It analyzes the nature and consequences of its extension from Ireland to mainland Europe and to Africa and Latin America Examining issues of copyright law translation and the history of literary institutions this volume seeks to use Joyce s canonical centrality to inform modernist studies more broadly Encyclopedia of Lesbian Histories and Cultures

Bonnie Zimmerman, 2013-08-21 A rich heritage that needs to be documented Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavours It covers a long history and a dynamic and ever changing present while opening up the academic profession to new scholarship and new ways of thinking A groundbreaking new approach While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written for and by a wide range of people Intended as a reference for students and scholars in all fields as well as for the general public the encyclopedia is written in user friendly language At the same time it maintains a high level of scholarship that incorporates both passion and objectivity It is written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new scholars whose research continues to advance gender studies into the future The best interests of the child Council of Europe, 2016-03-22 What does the concept of the best interests of the child mean in practice How should it be interpreted and applied This publication sheds lights on different aspects of this concept The concept of the best interests of child as stated in Article 3 1 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child has caused many controversies and debates amongst policy makers experts and practitioners Although central to a child s full enjoyment of his or her rights the meaning of the concept in practice and how it should be interpreted and applied is still part of today s debate The Belgian Authorities and the Council of Europe organised on 9 and 10 December 2014 a conference on The best interests of the child A dialogue between theory and practice to provide an opportunity for actors involved in decisions that have an impact on children s lives to share knowledge and enhance the understanding of the concept of the child s best interest Featuring in this publication are the 21 different viewpoints presented during the conference on the concept of the best interests of the child They are divided into four chapters namely those presenting general reflections of the concept assessing determining and monitoring best interests using the concept in different environments and understanding the concept in family affairs All viewpoints agree on the fact that there is no comprehensive definition of the concept and that its vagueness has resulted in practical difficulties for those trying to apply it Some suggest that the best interest should therefore only be used when necessary appropriate and feasible for advancing children s rights whereas others see the flexibility of the concept as its strong point Through their different interpretations and analysis this publication offers a solid contribution to the overall understanding of the concept of the best interests of child necessary to improving and safeguarding children s rights overall
