The Loneliest Continent:

The Loneliest Continent Walker Chapman, Robert Silverberg, 1964 The heroic saga of many men of many nationalities persistently probing into the forbidding ice bound fastness of the last unknown continent from the fables of Greek geographers to the findings of the International Geophysical Year on future scientific development The Loneliest Continent, 1967 A Lonely Road AA.VV., 2020-01-21 Nowadays solitude is everywhere Increasingly similar to monads we are losing the ability to build solid connections between us and to convert our private experience into public matter What is becoming lost is an art of translation the capacity to build bridges between private problems and troubles and common causes something that may connect people and make them act in accord that is politics as an art to bring us together The goal of this book is to question in many different ways the link between solitude and politics It is the result of a collective work of young researchers trying to understand and to fight their own solitude and loneliness within the academia It offers a preliminary interdisciplinary discussion aiming to forge the tools to grasp this strange oxymoron to better comprehend this simultaneously individual and collective condition The Secret Societies of All Ages and Countries Charles William Heckerthon, 1897 In the Land of the Lion and Sun; Or, Modern Persia Charles James Wills, 1891 In Bird Land Leander Sylvester Keyser, 1897 Traveling in the Holy Land Through the Stereoscope Jesse Lyman Hurlbut, 1900
