Voyages Paul Longley Arthur, 2011 Virtual Voyages is a fascinating account of the European discovery of the elusive great south land told through the literature of imaginary voyages Written at the height of the era of European maritime exploration these bizarre and captivating tales with their wildly imaginative visions of antipodean inversion and strangeness reveal a hidden history of attitudes to colonization By exposing the relationship between myth and reality in the antipodes this book casts new light on the power of fiction to influence history Historical Dictionary of the Discovery and Exploration of the Northwest Coast of America Robin Inglis, 2008-04-02 The Northwest Coast of America ranging from northern California through Oregon Washington and British Columbia all the way up to Alaska was the last temperate coastline to be placed on the world map First visited by Russians in 1741 and thought to contain a navigable passage between the Pacific and the Atlantic it was systematically revealed during an intense period of exploratory and commercial activity from the 1770s to the 1790s Subsequently the imperial ambitions of Russia Spain and Britain and an assumption of manifest destiny by the United States led to further exploration and ensured that the region would become disputed territory before national boundaries were determined in the mid 19th century The Historical Dictionary of the Discovery and Exploration of the Northwest Coast of America tells of the heroic endeavors and remarkable achievements the endless speculation about a northwest passage and the fighting and manipulation for commercial advantage that surrounded this terrain This is done through an introductory essay a detailed chronology an extensive bibliography modern maps and selected historical maps and drawings and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries Entries cover the native people encountered the scientists and artists who left an invaluable documentary and visual record of people places flora and fauna the numerous voyages taken by men such as Vitus Bering James Cook Juan Francisco de la Bodega y Quadra and George Vancouver overland expeditions like those of Alexander Mackenzie Simon Fraser Meriwether Lewis and William Clark and David Thompson and maritime fur traders including George Dixon Grigori Shelikhov Robert Gray and William Sturgis No other dictionary exists that is dedicated solely to the coverage of this region Laperouse Ernest Scott, 2005-11-01 We can well understand that a lad whose head was full of thoughts of voyaging and adventures was not as a schoolboy very tame and easy to manage He is described as having been ardent impetuous and rather stubborn But there is more than one kind of stubbornness There is the stupid stubbornness of the mule and the fixed firm will of the intelligent being from Chapter I Family Youth and Influences The disappearance of Jean Francois de Galaup Comte de Laprouse on his 18th century attempt to circle the globe was a grand nautical mystery for almost 40 years In this bittersweet 1912 biography Ernest Scott examines the short adventurous life of the forgotten navigator with his voyage related partly through Laprouse s own letters and reports that made it home to France We share his bemusement at the unstable canoes of the native South Pacific Islanders and his cordial encounter with the English expedition that had landed at Botany Bay in Australia just prior to Laprouse s arrival and learn of the expedition decades later that solved the puzzle of his disappearance This almost forgotten player of the great age of exploration will intrigue history buffs and readers of maritime fiction alike SIR ERNEST SCOTT 1867 1939 was born in England but emigrated to Australia as an adult where he wrote for the Melbourne Herald and was later named professor of history at the University of Melbourne He is also the author of A Short History of Australia and Terre Napoleon
