The Living Presence of the Past A. M. Allchin,1981     Directions of a Pastoral Lifetime William Flewelling,2014-06-17
These Studies comprise the bulk of my more or less academic styled searching toward understanding of aspects of my ministry particularly with regard to ministry itself to the life of prayer to ecumenism and various other aspects of ministry as I encountered them along the way     Remembering Lived Lives Michael Jimenez,2017-03-31 Remembering Lived Lives is a religious historiography book that focuses on issues and theorists located primarily in Latin America Instead of joining the chorus of contemporary European intellectuals like Slavoj i ek who insist on a renewed Eurocentrism this study challenges both historians and theologians to take seriously the work done by theorists located in what Enrique Dussel calls the underside of modernity This is an interdisciplinary work that opens with Karl Barth s outline for historical theological study and closes with an analysis of the film The Mission Written for both the history or theology instructor and student it deals with subjects like church history biography as theology liberation theology as primary source material photographs and historical movies     The Trinitarian Dharma Pabitra Mani Bhandari,2025-02-25 As the gospel continues to spread to the farthest corners of the world the Christian faith encounters an array of diverse cultures religions philosophies and belief systems This encounter serves as a catalyst for transformation as Christianity both influences and is influenced by the new frontiers it reaches The book at hand endeavors to explore this dynamic process particularly focusing on the Trinitarian theology as a potent force for transformation Moreover it seeks to uncover the resonance between Christian concepts and the rich tapestry of Dharma thereby enhancing our understanding of the Trinity In essence this book serves as a pivotal example of how abstract theological ideas can be made relevant and meaningful in the context of a multicultural and multireligious world It embodies an approach to Christian theology that is both interreligious and interdisciplinary emanating from a global Christian perspective that embraces diversity and dialogue     History of the Christian Church Philip Schaff,1888     History of the Christian Church from Its Origin to the Present Time William Maxwell Blackburn,1879

Goodwin,2009-04-10 World Christianity in Local Context is the first volume of a unique collection of essays in honour of David A Kerr who was well known for his contributions in the areas of Christian Muslim dialogue Ecumenical Studies and Missions With contributions from recognised experts in these fields the book provides a platform for examining critical issues facing twenty first century Christianity with a special emphasis on contemporary Christian Muslim relations     Living the Christian Story Mary Jean Manninen,2000 The Christian Faith is First of all A Story the dramatic story of God s redemption of creation The Christian hears the Story in the Bible shares in its retelling in worship and lives it out in the context of community So it is a Story in which we all participate in which we each have our own story As Sister Mary Jean Manninen writes Each person's story fits into the one whole and also reflects in a unique way the themes of that one whole The Future of Christology Dong-Kun Kim, 2019-06-28 The Future of Christology addresses the questions that Christology currently faces and/or will face in the future in 12 topics The book consists of two parts In the first part Kim deals with five topics related to traditional Christology while in the second part he wrestles with seven topics related to issues of Christology The twenty-first century is a challenging time for Christianity Many in our age are asking what Jesus Christ means in various dimensions of history culture nature and even beyond the Earth Changes in values worldviews and views of the universe are forming a new zeitgeist Dong Kun Kim argues that ways of understanding Christ should change accordingly for a Christology that fails to communicate meaningfully with the times is void of vitality Postmodernism dehistoricization and life post ideology multiculturalism multiple religions and above all the rapid development of the natural sciences pose a serious challenge to traditional Christology Who is Christ in the age of an infinite cosmos How do daily human life social devotion and praxis relate to salvation How can we discuss salvation history in an era post history Where does Christ stand in the public sphere Can the Chalcedonian definition of the two natures of Christ true God and true human being encompass nature and the cosmos would a third nature of Christ be necessary Will the cyborg which may appear in the near future be the object of Christ's salvation If scientific determinism becomes popular in the future will the basis of faith in Christ lose ground If intelligent life exists in the universe what does Christ mean to such life This book provides innovative answers to these questions in an academic context

The Church and Development in Africa, Second Edition Stan Chu Ilo, 2014-10-20 In this book Stan Chu Ilo offers an integral theology of development and a critical social analysis of different development theories and practices in the world especially in Africa Ilo offers a comprehensive biblical anthropological and theological foundation of the principles and praxis of Catholic social ethics from the Second Vatican Council to Pope Francis Drawing from the social encyclical Charity in Truth Ilo shows how Catholic social teaching responds to some of the challenging questions and concerns of our times in relation to human rights ecology globalization international cooperation development and aid human and cultural development business ethics social justice and the challenges of poverty eradication He creatively applies these principles to the social context of Africa and lays a groundwork for sustainable Christian humanitarian and social justice initiatives in Africa The Dawn of Political Nihilism Professor David Ohana, 2008-12-04 In the turbulent period between 1870 and 1930 the contours of modernity were taking shape especially the connections between technology politics and aesthetics The trilogy The Nihilist Order traces the genealogy of the nihilist totalitarian syndrome Until now nihilism and totalitarianism were considered opposites one an orderless state of affairs the other a strict regimented order On closer scrutiny however a surprising affinity can be found between these two concepts that dominated the history of the first half of the twentieth century Starting with Nietzsche's philosophy this book traces the development of an intellectual school characterised by the paradoxical dual purpose of a wish to destroy coupled with a strong desire to create imposing structures. This explosive combination of nihilist leanings together with a craving for totalitarianism was an ideal of philosophers, cultural critics, political theorists, engineers, architects and aesthetes long before it materialised in flesh and blood not only in technology but also in fascism, Nazism, bolshevism and radical European political movements. Friedrich Nietzsche, Georges Sorel, the Italian Futurists led by Filippo Tommaso Marinetti and Ernst Jünger were all well known intellectual and cultural figures. Here they are seen and understood in a different light as creators of a modern political mythology that became a source of inspiration for belligerent ideological camps. Among the ideas propagated by this school and later adopted by totalitarian regimes were historical nihilism, a revolt against the rationalistic and universalistic pretensions of the Enlightenment, an affirmation of the dynamism of modern life and the replacement of the traditional Judeo-Christian values of good and evil by other dualities such as authenticity and decadence. Concurrently there took place affirmation of the technological era, the creation of a new man and a violent order and the birth of a new political style in place of traditional world views. When channelled into the political sphere these aesthetic nihilist ideas paved the way for the rise of totalitarianism.
