The Lombard Rose:

The Rose of Balarm Nigel Patten, 2022-04-15 This intriguing transformation turns a legend into a person of history The patron saint of Palermo Italy romanized as Balarm is Santa Rosalia Sinibaldi There s no documented proof of her existence so this historical tale imagines how Rosalia Rus lia in the book may have lived from her birth in 1130 to her death in 1165 The daughter of a Lombard count and a Norman noblewoman she was also a distant cousin of King Roger II Rujari Educated in the Norman palace of Qasr Rus lia was given in marriage by the king at age fourteen to the French Count Baudouin Rus lia took refuge in a Basilian monastery to avoid the marriage She then fled to her family estates and lived partly in a cave Years later she was forced to return to Balarm and became one of Queen Margaret s ladies Known for performing minor miracles Rus lia fled once more to live in another cave under Mount Pellegrino where she lived until her death In 1642 during the plague in Balarm her bones were discovered taken down the mountain and paraded round the city Three days later the plague disappeared

Manzoni and the Aesthetics of the Lombard Seicento

Glenn Palen Pierce, 1998 Aligning these historical treatises with what little Manzoni said about art in his critical treatises justifies a methodology that combines elements of ekphrasis and a comparison of the variants from the first to the final version of the novel Such methodology allows us to identify how both dramatic and pictorial influences common in seventeenth century Lombard art manifest themselves in Manzoni s narrative constructs

Useless Beauty

Ann Elias, 2015-10-05 The story of Australian art does not begin and end with landscape This book puts flowers front and centre because they have often been ignored in preference for more masculine themes Departing from where studies of single flower artists leave off Useless Beauty embraces the general topic of flowers in Australian art and shines new light on a slice of Australian art history that extends from 1880 to 1950 It is the first book of broad chronology to discuss Australian art through blossoms which it does by addressing stories of major figures including Hans Heysen Margaret Preston and Sidney Nolan as well as specific objects such as surreal flowers Aboriginal flowers and war flowers Whether modern or conservative the artists in this study shared an intellectual and emotional passion for flora This was true for men as well as women despite blossoms being a more traditionally feminine subject Through spectacular reproductions of historical and contemporary artworks drawn from collections in Australia the United States Britain and New Zealand Useless Beauty explores how flowers influenced the psyche governed rituals defined identity and brought a psychological dimension to the everyday The peak years for flower centricity in Australian art were between 1920 and 1940 when flowers were known as the apotheosis of useless beauty
