Laurence Austine Waddell,1899 The Popular Life of Buddha Arthur Lillie,1883 The Little Book of Buddhist Rebirth Eric K. Van Horn,2016-09-14 The Little Book on Buddhist Rebirth looks at questions related to how the Buddha s teachings on rebirth apply to Buddhist practice It starts with some fundamental questions starting with Did the Buddha actually teach rebirth And if he did was he talking about the transmigration of a being from one lifetime to the next or was it a metaphor for other types of phenomena like mental activity Next the Little Book looks at whether there is evidence that rebirth is a reality What do studies on past life experiences tell us What does our knowledge of Near Death Experiences tell us and does this relate to how Buddhists describe rebirth There is also a discussion of The Tibetan Book of the Dead and how its description of the death process compares to Near Death Experiences Then there is an examination of whether belief in rebirth is necessary to attain Awakening Even if rebirth is part of the Buddha s teachings is it necessary to believe in rebirth in order to liberate our minds from suffering and stress Or is rebirth a cultural artifact from ancient India and we can dispense with it Finally there is a description of the Buddhist cosmology how the Buddhist tradition came to understand the different realms in the universe This Little Book takes us beyond views and practices that fit comfortably into conventional reality It prepares us for the transcendent teachings of the Buddha and into the mystical world that lies beyond time and space The Little Book of Zen Émile Marini,2021-01-07 Treat the stresses of modern day life with The Little Book of Zen Who knew so much wisdom could come in such a small package This little book is packed full of easy practices and meditations to help you introduce the principles of Zen Buddhism into your day to day enhance your spiritual physical and mental wellbeing tune into your natural intuition and find your inner
