The Longest Race Kara Goucher, 2023-03-14 INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER In this unvarnished and affecting memoir Olympian Kara Goucher reveals her experience of living through and speaking out about one of the biggest scandals in running Kara Goucher grew up with Olympic dreams She excelled at running from a young age and was offered a Nike sponsorship deal when she graduated from college Then in 2004 she was invited to join a secretive lavishly funded new team dubbed the Nike Oregon Project Coached by distance running legend Alberto Salazar it seemed like the opportunity of a lifetime Kara was soon winning a World Championship medal going to the Olympics and standing on the podium at the New York and Boston marathons just like her coach But behind the scenes Salazar was hiding dark secrets He pushed the limits of anti doping rules and created what Kara experienced as a culture of abuse the extent of which she reveals in her book for the first time Meanwhile Nike stood by Alberto for years and proved itself capable of shockingly misogynistic corporate practices Told with stunning honesty The Longest Race is an unforgettable story and a call to action Kara became a crusader for female athletes and a key witness helping to get Salazar banned from coaching at the Olympic level Kara's memoir reveals how she broke through the fear of losing everything bucked powerful forces to take control of her life and career and reclaimed her love of running

The Longest Race Ed Ayres, 2012-11-13 Among endurance runners there are those who have run very long distances and then there are those who have run very long distances for a very long time Ed Ayres exemplifies the latter having run in over 600 races across fifty five years he is arguably the most experienced American distance runner still competing today A book no one else could have written The Longest Race is his urgent exploration of the connection between individual endurance and a sustainable society The Longest Race begins at the starting line of the 2001 JFK 50 Mile the nation's oldest and largest ultramarathon and like other such races an epic test of human limits and aspiration At age sixty his sights set on breaking the age division record Ayres embarks on a course over the rocky ridge of the Appalachian Trail along the headwind buffeted towpath of the Potomac River and past momentous Civil War sites such as Harpers Ferry and Antietam But even as Ayres focuses on concerns familiar to every endurance runner starting strong and setting the right pace the art of breathing overcoming fatigue mindfulness for the course ahead he finds himself as preoccupied with the future of our planet as with the finish line of this 50 mile race A veteran journalist and environmental editor who harbors deep anxiety about our longterm prospects Ayres helps us to understand how the skills and mindset necessary to complete an ultramarathon are also essential for grappling anew with the imperative to endure not only as individuals but as a society and not just for 50 miles but in the longest race we are all called upon to run Summary of Kara Goucher's The Longest Race Milkyway Media, 2024-01-24 Get the Summary of Kara Goucher's The Longest Race in 20 minutes Please note This is a summary not the original book The Longest Race is the memoir of Kara Goucher chronicling her life from her family's history to her own experiences as a professional runner The book details her mother Patty's marriage to

The Longest Race Ed Ayres, 2013-08-20 It soon becomes clear that this book isn't just about an athletic race It's also about the human race Bloomberg Businessweek Having run in more than six hundred races over the span of fifty-five years Ed Ayres is a legendary distance runner and this book is his urgent exploration of the connection between individual endurance and a sustainable society The Longest Race begins in 2001 at the starting line of the JFK 50 Mile the nation's oldest and largest ultramarathon and like other such races it's an epic test of human limits and aspiration At age sixty his sights set on breaking the age division record Ayres embarks on a course over the rocky ridge of the Appalachian Trail along the headwind buffeted towpath of the Potomac River and past momentous Civil War sites such as Harpers Ferry and Antietam But even as Ayres focuses on an endurance runner's familiar concerns starting strong and setting the right pace controlling his breathing overcoming fatigue and staying mindful of the course ahead he finds himself as preoccupied with the future of our planet as with the finish line A veteran journalist and environmental editor Ayres reveals how the skills and mindset necessary to complete an ultramarathon are also essential for grappling anew with the imperative to endure not only as individuals but as a society and not just for fifty miles but over the real long haul in a unique meditation that ought to be required reading even for people who have never run a step The Boston Globe He seamlessly moves between discussing running to exploring larger life issues such as why we run our impact on the environment and the effects of the nation's declining physical fitness Thought provoking Booklist To read this book is to run alongside a seasoned athlete a deep thinker and a great storyteller And Ayres doesn't disappoint He is the best kind of running companion generously doling out hilarious stories and hard won insights into performance conditioning and the human condition His lifetime of ultra running and environmental writing drive his exploration of what keeps us running long distances and what it might take to keep the planet from being run into the ground Nature Conservancy magazine
